The Poet's Corner.

WHEN I AM DEAD.

Toll not the bell of death for me,
When I am dead;
Strew not the flowery wreath o'er me,
On my cold bed.
Let friendship's sacred tear
On my fresh grave appear,
Gemming with pearls my bier—
When I am dead.
No dazzling proud array
Of pageantry display,
My fate to spread.
Let not the busy crowd be near,
When I am dead;
Fanning with unfelt sighs my bier,
Sighs quickly sped.
Deep let the impression rest
In some fond, feeling breast;
Then were my memory blest
When I am dead.
Let not the day be writ;
Love will remember it,
Untold—unsaid.

Select Miscellany.

Sold Himself.

We have heard a capital anecdote of a witty clergyman, who is said never to come off second best in a jocular encounter.

As he was one day passing down the street of a large village where he was settled, he was observed by some waggish hangers on at a public house which he was approaching. One of these fellows, knowing the reverend gentleman was a "hard case," at a joke, said that he would bet drinks for all hands that he would head Mr. A.

As Mr. A. came opposite the merry group, the proposer of the bet called to him, Mr. A. halted and drew near, whereupon the confident chap addressed him:—

"Mr. A., we have a dispute here of some importance, which we have agreed to leave to you as one competent to give a correct decision."

"Ah! what is it?"

"It is in relation to the age of the devil. Will you tell us how old he is?"

"Gentlemen," said the imperturbable minister, "how can you presume me to be acquainted with matters of that sort? You must keep your own family record!"

A Minister's Walk and Conversation.

The editor of the North Carolina Presbyterian, who is at the Virginia Springs, has heard a good story of Speaker Orr and the Rev. Dr. W., of Lexington. Not long since, the story goes, they were both at the warm springs, and met in a public room of the hotel. They had been sitting with other company, and after awhile the Dr. rose and walked across the room with the usual limp in his gait. Mr. Orr immediately recognized him, and asked him if he was not the Chaplain at the University of Virginia at such a time, naming the year. The Dr. replied that he was. "I was there," said Mr. Orr, "a student at the University, and I knew you by your limp." "Well," said the Dr., "it seems my limping made a deeper impression on you than my preaching." The joke placed Mr. Orr in an awkward predicament, and most men would have been unable to extricate themselves, but he replied with ready wit: "Ah, Dr., it is the highest compliment we can pay a minister to say he is known by his walk rather than by his conversation."

☞A man who is very rich now, but was very poor when he was a boy, when asked how he got his riches, replied: "My father taught me never to play until my work was finished, and never spend my money until I had earned it. If I had but one hour's work in a day I must do that the first thing, and in an hour—and after that, I was allowed to play, and then could play with much more pleasure than if I had the thought of an unfinished task before my mind. I early formed the habit of doing everything in time, and it soon became easy to do so. It is to this I owe my prosperity."

Paris has Repudiated "Hoops."—Ladies will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly. The reform however cannot be brought about in a day. The hoops here must be let down slowly. The fashionables in France have made other changes in dress. A writer from Paris urges our ladies to abolish long skirts in the streets, and doff so much finery. He says the French and English ladies all wear short skirts, and show their pretty ankles, with their snow white stockings. The Balmoral under skirt is much worn.

☞We may seek costly furniture for our homes, fanciful ornaments for our mantle pieces, and rich carpets for our floors, but after the absolute necessaries for a home, books and newspapers are at once the cheapest. And certainly the most useful and abiding embellishment.

☞It's the little troubles that wear the heart out. It is easier to throw a bomb-shell a mile, than a feather—even with artillery. Forty little debts of a dollar each, will cause you more trouble and dunning than one big one of a thousand.

☞A young and pretty little lady remarked the other day that a young man who didn't take a newspaper, was not deserving of the affections of an amiable lady. A sensible girl that, and if we were a young man we would set our cap for her.

A Woman's Dodge in Rotterdam.

A foreign correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat writes: I had not gone far in my rambles about the city before I was brought to a stand by a discovery. On both sides of the streets, projecting from the centre of almost every window of the dwelling houses, each at an angle of 45 degrees with the window, were placed two mirrors of about a foot square, each in a verticle position, one facing up the street and the other down. I immediately set my Yankee ingenuity to work to "guess" their object, and was not long in discovering in these mirrors plain indications that here, in this great swamp of Europe, woman's curiosity is the same as among verdant hills and more genial climes.—The mistress of the house seating herself in her parlor in a particulrr spot before a window, with book, needle or knitting work in hand, has but to lift her eyes into the twin looking-glasses outside her window in order to catch at a glance the whole panorama of the street in both directions. There was also another queer looking-glass arrangement which, for a long time, puzzled me. The puzzle grew out of the peculiar positions and various angles at which these mirrors were placed. I was about giving it up, when, observing that their inclination was always decidedly towards the front door, I saw the whole secret as clear as light. The good lady of the house, hearing the door-bell ring, darts a look into the curious mirror, and thereby knows in a moment who stands at the door. Of course when the door servant comes in her ladyship can at once say whether she is at home or not. In all the cities of Holland nearly every dwelling house has projecting from its windows from one to ten of these ugly-looking mirrors.

Indians as a Matter of Fact.

A man who had been West, and been chased by an Indian, writes:

"Much has been said by poets and romantic young ladies about the picturesque aspect and the noble form of an untamed, untamable warrior of the prairie, and far be it from me to gainsay them. 'An Indian is a noble spectacle—in a picture, or at a safe distance—but when this 'noble spectacle,' in company with a dozen other 'noble spectacles,' is moving his moccasins in your direction, and you have to do some tall walking in order to keep the capillary substance on the summit of your cranium, all his 'nobility' vanishes, and you see in him only a painted, greasy miscreant, who will, if you give him a chance, lift your hair with the same Christian spirit, composed and most sereno, with which he would ask another 'spectacle' for 'a little more of that baked dog.' I used to think like the poets; now the sight of an Indian gives me a cramp in the stomach."

Dr. Franklin's Toast.—At a dinner of a Foreign Minister, the British Minister gave:

England—The Sun, whose bright beams enlighten and fructify the remotest corners of the earth.

The French Ambassador followed with:

France—The Moon, whose mild steady and cheering rays are the delight of all nations, controlling the darkness, and making their dreariness beautiful.

Dr. Franklin then rose and, with his usual dignity and simplicity, said:

George Washington—The Joshua who commanded the Sun and Moon to stand still and they obeyed him.

☞An old lady in the country had a dandy from the city to dine with her, on a certain occasion. For the dessert there was an enormous apple-pie.

"La, ma'am!" said the gentleman, "how do you manage to handle such a pie?"

"Easy enough," was the quiet reply; "we make the crust in a wheelbarrow, wheel it under an apple-tree, and then shake the fruit down into it."

☞A testy editor wonders if we are not often frightened by the ghost of murdered truth. We do not think he is in any danger of such a fright. As he was never able to see the truth itself, he will hardly be able to discern its ghost.

☞There is a class of persons who only make friends to use them. If they can get nothing out of a man, they do not want his friendship. Such people treat their friends like cigars—they hang on to them, get all the good from them, then throw them away and spit after them.

☞A young lady asked a gentleman the meaning of the word surrogate.—"It is," replied he, "a gate through which parties pass on their way to get married." "Then I suppose," replied she, "that it is a corruption of sorrow gate." "You are right, Miss," replied her informant, "as woman is an abbreviation of wo to man."

☞"Some people," said a red-nosed individual, harranguing three or four bystanders, "waste their money in charity, others squander theirs in supporting wives and families—but, as for me, I saves mine to buy spirits."

☞The tombstone of a sweet girl, blind from her birth, bears this inscription: "There is no night there." The tomb of a child of three years, has inscribed up it—"Went in the morning."

☞A lawyer asked a Dutchman in court what ear marks a pig had that was in dispute. "Vell, he has no ear marks except very short tail."

☞Anthony Burns, the colored fugitive, is lecturing in Maine.

California Poetry.

When from my farm I chance to stray, to spend an hour at close of day, I ever find the place most dear, where some friend treats to lager beer.—Sacramento Age.

Ah! yes, my friend, of city life, sure such a treat cures such a strife; but better than such a dose far, are pleasures of a fine segar.—Placer Herald.

Such pleasure may suit baser minds, but with the good no pleasure finds; we think the purest joy of life, is making love to one's own wife.—Volcano Ledger.

Most wise your choice, my worthy friend, in Hymen's joys your cares to end, but we though tired of single life, can't boast of having our own wife, and so when 'neath our cares we faint, we fly to kiss some gal that ain't—yet.—Napa Reporter.

That "lager beer" will bile provoke, while "fine Havanas" end in smoke.—To court one's wife is better far than lager beer or vile cigar. Kisses, the dew of Love's young morn, break on the lips as soon as born. These all are naught to that greatest joy—the first proud glance at your first born boy!—Evening Ledger.

'Tis true a boy's a wished for blessing, but then suppose the first's a girl. A dear sweet child, with ways caressing, with pouting lips and flaxen curl, with dimple cheeks and laughing eye, to come and bid "papa" good bye! So whether boy or whether t'other, embrace the babe and then the mother!—San Francisco Globe.

Stopping a Leak.

"John," said his master to a servant who, after a stay of protracted and suspicious duration in the wine cellar, came into the room staggering as if the task of keeping his equilibrium was altogether beyond his power, "John," said he angrily, "how often have I told you not to meddle with the wine? If you transgress again, I shall immediately discharge you from my service."

"Why—hic—sir," stammered John, "that's—hic—a pretty way—hic—to repay a favor. I did it sir—hic—for the sake of doing you a service."

"Doing me a service, you blockhead!" said his master, irritated, "what do you mean by such an extraordinary statement as that? I demand an explanation."

"Why, you see, sir—hic—I went down into the cellar and somehow the bung of the wine cask came out, and—hic—while I was searching for it—hic—so that the wine might not run out, I put my mouth to it instead of the stopper."

John was advised to be careful how the stopper came out the next time.

☞Bill P. was making a journey in a stage coach, over the jolly roads in the western part of the State, and amused himself on the way by frequent resorts to the comforts of a mysterious black bottle which he had with him.—Suddenly the coach came in contact with a large stone, which, without doing any other damage, deprived Billy of his equilibrium and down he rolled on the ground.

"What'n thunder yer doing?" said Billy; "how come you to tip over?"

The driver informed him that the stage had not been overturned at all; and the passengers assured Billy that he was right. Billy approached the vehicle again, and remounted slowly to his former seat outside.

"Didn't upset, d'ye say?"

"Not at all," replied the driver.

"Well—if I'd knaw'd that," said Billy, "I wouldn't ha' got off."

☞"Charlie, have you set her?"

"Yes, grandma."

"Fixed the nest all up nicely?"

"Mighty fine, grandma."

"How many eggs did you put under her, sonny?"

"One hundred and twenty."

"Why, Charlie! what did you put so many under her for?"

"Grandma, I wanted to see her spread herself."

☞"Daddy, daddy, there's goin' to be a hog shed full of sugar sold at auction this afternoon, down to the Squire's."

"You mean hogshead, my son."

"No, it spells hog shed."

"How so?"

"Why, h-o-g hog, s-h-e-d shed, hog-shed."

"Ah! my son, you beat your old father for larnin."

☞We occasionally come across something extra laughable in an exchange. A St. Louis paper says that the grasshoppers have eaten up the entire crop of tobacco in Franklin county, and the last that was heard from them they were seated on the corners of the fence begging every man for a chew.

Telegraphic Time.—The difference in time between Trinity Bay and Valentia Bay is about 3 hours and 48 minutes. A dispatch was sent from Dublin to Newfoundland, simply saying: "It is twelve o'clock noon in Dublin; what hour in Newfoundland?" Answer—"Eight o'clock in the morning." The answer was received in an hour and a half. Between the extreme eastern and western points of the United States there is a difference of time of 3 hours 50 minutes.

☞How can five persons divide five eggs so that each man will receive one, and still one remain in the dish? Ans. One take the dish with the egg.

☞"Nat, what are you leaning over that empty cask for?" "I'm mourning over departed spirits."

Time to Plant Evergreens.

We find that the old, exploded doctrine that August is the best time to transplant Evergreens, is again upon the carpet, and is advocated in one of our prominent agricultural journals with earnestness.

We trust, however, that no one will be misled with any argument of this kind, whatever may be its speciousness and plausibility. Those who have tried both spring and August, will know how to proceed in future without advice from any one.

Let us simply ask, Do not your evergreens, transplanted, (in this region,) say from the 15th March to the 15th April, live and grow with equal certainty as deciduous trees? Our experience is, that it is a rare thing to see a carefully lifted and planted evergreen die, when removed in the spring. We do not remember ever to have lost one.—Last spring we set out about one hundred American arbor vitaes, and every one has grown. We also set out Austrian pines, Scotch, Norway and Silver firs, and every one has not only lived but increased in size—some of them growing one foot!

Some persons, who perhaps have never set out a tree properly in their lives, are exceedingly profuse in heaping their complaints upon the season. Our failures in transplanting trees of any kind, have been owing, in nine cases out of ten, to the abominable manner in which they were lifted in the nursery; and we believe that a large majority of the failures are to be attributed to this cause.—Germantown Telegraph. True!

Draining Prevents Injury from Drouth.

That draining "deepens the soil," "increases the effect of manures," and "lengthens the season" of working the land, we have already shown; the fact that it "prevents the injurious effects of droughts," however, seems a paradox, remains to be accounted for.

We all know that a deep and mellow soil retains moisture much better than a shallow and hard one. "Water is held in the soil between the minute particles of earth. If these particles be pressed together compactly, there is no space left between them for water."—Compact subsoils are but little parmeable to water, compared with the same when broken up, pulverized, and mellowed. The one is porous and drinks in moisture like a sponge; the other absorbs in it but small quantities, and rapidly parts with the same on the application of heat. The one takes it from the air, which passes freely thro' it, the other impervious to the air, remains unchanged. Undrained soils, as we have shown, become compact after heavy rains, by the evaporation of the water with which they are saturated; drained soils, on the contrary, become more porous from the filtration of the same amount of moisture into the drains below.

Draining prevents injury from drouth by giving a better growth to plants in the early summer. Seeds sown on any soil containing stagnant water, sends no roots below that water line, but may for a while grow well from roots near the surface. But let drouth come, the water-line sinks rapidly, the roots having no depth to seek moisture below, are parched and burned, and without rain the crop is irreparably injured.—On a drained and deepened soil the roots go down without obstruction, and are thus prepared to withstand the effects of the long continued dry weather so often experienced. That they will do so, a thousand facts in the experience of the farmer will prove to him that observes them.

If it be granted, as we think it must be, that draining deepens and mellows the soil, it follows that draining prevents drought from effecting injuriously the growth of plants. In 1854, an excessively dry season, Prof. Flint, of Massachusetts, gathered a mass of testimony in regard to its effects on the crops, and the best means of preventing injury to the same. The returns came back, as with one voice, in favor of deepening and mellowing the soil, by draining, deep-ploughing, subsoiling and frequent culture, in the case of hood crops. "The drought affected deep plough lands very little; on those that were faithfully subsoiled, the corn leaves did not roll at all, while on those that were shallow plowed, the corn crop suffered much, and other crops were seriously affected." A case has been stated, where a crop of beans were planted, grown and ripened on a drained and subsoiled field, without a shower of fifteen minutes, duration, or supply of water from any source, save from the dews of heaven and the moisture from beneath. At the same time in fields adjacent, vegetation was parched and crisp, making no growth whatever from lack of moisture.—Country Gentleman.

A Good Receipt.

To boil a chicken, leg of lamb, or piece of veal, with salt pork:—Take about one pound of salt pork with either of these; an old chicken will boil in about three hours, a young one, in half the time. A piece of veal will boil in one to two hours; leg of lamb in about the same time. The salt pork will boil in an hour. Take the pork and what you boil with it, out of the pot, when done, and boil the greens in the water; spinach is nice and tender, it must be taken up as soon as the water boils; other greens must be boiled longer. In boiling the meat, add some salt.

[illegible]

One of the charges made against the Democracy of the Union, with reference to their Kansas policy is, that they are willing that Kansas shall come into the Union as a slave State, with a smaller number of inhabitants, than if she elected to come in as a free State.—This is [illegible] charge. It does not rest upon a single fact. The Democratic party took the case as it was presented, and settled it upon the broad grounds of constitutional rights and popular sovereignty. But what course did the Black Republicans pursue?—Did they make no distinction between a free and a slave State? Look at the action of the Black Republican members of the last Congress, in their votes upon the applications of Minnesota and Kansas for admission into the Union. What policy did the men who are now clamoring against the Democratic party pursue when called to act upon these cases? They voted to keep the free State of Minnesota out of the Union, although she had a population of two hundred thousand people, but, at the same session, voted for a bill which allowed Kansas, which they now claim had but thirty-five thousand people, to come into the Union as a slave State, if it was the desire of her people to do so. In other words, this Republican party, which vaunts of its devotion to the interests of freedom and free States, declared, by its votes in Congress, that two hundred thousand people could not make a free State in Minnesota, but thirty-five thousand might make a slave State in Kansas.—Pennsylvanian.

Connecticut Musquitoes.—Bemus, a spruce young man from this city, was riding out into the country a few days since, with his "gal," and as the sun was hot he stopped under the shade of a tree to let his horses breathe. The "skeeters" were very thick and big, and Bemus, thinking to have a little fun, called out to a farmer at work in the field: "Hallo, sir, what do you feed your musquitoes on?" "We feed 'em on little city fellers and hosses." Bemus whipped up. Fact.—Hartford Press.

☞The editor of one of our exchanges has grown melancholy, and took to writing poetry. Here is a verse from his pen addressed to a young lady whom he fell in love with, but who rejected him on account of his poverty:

I vow I'd swim the Maumee river,
And to win so fresh a bud,
I'd wade up to my neck in mud."

For Scolding Wives.—We heard a remedy for these afflictions the other day. A friend of ours who follows the profession of a carpenter had been for some time repairing a dwelling whose mistress is a reputed termagant. Listening to her as she vented her wrath on her good natured "old man," the other day, Shavings turned to us and seriously said: "If I had such a wife as that, I'd 'point her fun'ral to-morrow at two o'clock—and, by Jocks, the corpse would be ready!"—Clinton Courier.

☞Democrats of Adams, be on your guard against the plots of the enemy. Be not lulled into inactivity because they may pretend to feel no interest in the contest. They are only skamming, and hope to take us by surprise when the day of battle arrives. Be prepared for them at all points.

Victory!

The Democrats of Wilmington, Delaware, carried the Mayor and half the city officers at the election last week. A year ago the Know Nothings and Republicans elected their ticket by three hundred and fifty-eight majority. This victory is worth a hearty HURRAH!!

Libel Suit.

THADDEUS STEVENS has instituted a suit against Mr. SANDERSON, of the Lancaster Intelligencer, for libel—founded, the Times says, on a charge made against him of gambling. The last Intelligencer says: "We simply stated that Mr. BUCHANAN was no gambler, and we believe he was not guilty of that vice and other gross outrages against the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth, he was not deserving the foul epithet, bestowed upon him by STEVENS, of being the 'meanest' man that has ever occupied the Presidential chair.—We also stated that the man who would deliberately and in cool blood apply such an epithet to the Chief Magistrate of the Nation, was himself entitled to the appellation, and we say so now."

"Extravagance!"

The Star, some time ago, charged President BUCHANAN'S Administration with expending $100,000,000 in a single year. In last Friday's issue, the managers get down to $80,000,000—the necessity of approaching the truth being forced upon them by the better knowledge of their readers. Now, take from these $80,000,000, nearly $15,000,000 of Post Office revenue, and but $65,000,000 remain. From the latter take the balance estimated at Washington to be in the Treasury at the end of the fiscal year, about $15,000,000, and the aggregate properly chargeable to the Administration sinks to the neighborhood of $50,000,000. And in this are included the expenses of the Utah expedition and the increase of the army and navy. The charge of "extravagance" exhibits recklessness as well as untruth.

The Tariff of '57.

The Republicans in Ohio have renominated Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, the author of the bill to reduce the Tariff in 1857, and by whose exertions mainly the reduction was effected, yet these worthies are just now crying out for protection! This nomination fully exposes their hypocricy.—Exchange.

☞The Star and the Sentinel do not contain a word disapproving of the renomination of Lewis D. Campbell, notwithstanding his authorship of the Tariff reduction bill of 1857. The simple reason is, he is a fellow partner in the (bankrupt) firm of "Sam and Sambo."

☞"The Republicans of the twentieth district of Ohio have nominated John Hutchins, of Warren, for Congress, in the place of the Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, who declines a re-nomination."—Star.

☞The following, from the Cincinnati Enquirer, does not look as though Giddings had "declined:"

The Defeat of Giddings.—The vote on the third ballot in the Republican Convention for the Ashtabula Congressional District stood as follows:—John Hutchins 49; Joshua R. Giddings 28; R. W. Taylor 2; Jesse Baldwin 8. Hutchins' majority over all, two.—The contest was better in the convention. The "rugged issue" men, knowing the moral prestige that would be against them if a man so prominently identified with the Abolition cause as Giddings was beaten, did everything they could to save him, but all to no purpose. The great Abolition champion was beaten, in his colleagues, Bliss, Harlan, Denny, Julian and others of his stamp, had previously been, in other districts in Ohio and Indiana. No wonder that, under such treatment, the genuine anti-slavery men feel like encouraging an independent movement, such as has been made by Gerrit Smith in New York.

☞Banks has been re-nominated for Governor of Massachusetts by the Opposition, the same BANKS who was Speaker of the House of Representatives at Washington at the time the Tariff reduction bill of 1857 passed.

The Tariff Plank.

From present indications the opposition, called by themselves "the people's party"—or the "Republicans"—intend to add the Tariff Plank to their Fusion Platform this fall—hoping thereby to humbug a few voters into the support of their candidates, who otherwise would vote the Democratic ticket, as heretofore. This trick of that tricky party, we presume, will not prove very profitable in this part of the Commonwealth. The leaders of that ever-changing party have exhausted their fund of deception, and any renewed attempts at their old tricks will be exposed, and the imposition made to recoil upon their guilty heads. All their old notions—called by them principles—they have abandoned, and now for want of something better, revive the Tariff question—an unlucky hit for them, when the proceedings of the Congress that reduced the rates are more fully known.

At the organization of the 34th Congress the Black Republicans outnumbered the Democrats nearly two to one—and after an unprecedented struggle of months, succeeded in electing BANKS, of Massachusetts, Speaker, over the Democrats. In forming the Committees of the House, the tariff question was kept in view. Speaker Banks, the tool and choice of the Manufacturing Princes of the East, placed CAMPBELL, of Ohio, the leader of the Republicans in Congress, at the head of the Committee of Ways and Means, because of its control of the Revenue questions, and because Mr. CAMPBELL was a low Tariff man.

That we may not be contradicted nor be disbelieved, even by those whose party prejudices would incline them to do it, we will publish in this connection a few extracts from the speeches made by Mr. CAMPBELL during the discussion and passage of the Tariff bill now complained of:

"I wished to ascertain whether this general debate is to go on pending so important a question as that of reducing the Revenue of the Country."—C. G. page 406.

"In the higher schedules you will find a reduction, taking the importations of the last year as a basis of calculation, of about $3,000,000; and if the importation of articles in the intermediate schedules are no more in the future than they were last year, you will have an aggregate reduction of about $14,000,000." * * * "The reduction of the Revenue is one great object to accomplish."—C. G. page 990.

Mr. CAMPBELL, as the leader and mouth-piece of the Republican forces, and as the employee of the Eastern Manufacturers, attempted to coax into the support of his low Tariff bill the Democrats of Kentucky and Pennsylvania, by telling them that there should be no "party politics" in the measure, and that they could afford a reduction of duty on iron in order to have stability in the system, and be assured of a rich harvest in a few years. Read his no-party and free-trade sentiments:

"I am very glad that the gentleman from Kentucky is willing to take this feature of the bill, because Kentucky has a growing iron interest, as Ohio has: and I believe that great interest may well afford a reduction of duty in order to have that great question withdrawn from the party politics of the times, and placed on a firm and stable basis.

"Again—I believe that if this question were settled, taken, as I said, from the arena of party politics, and placed upon the basis reported by the Committee of Conference as a finality, Pennsylvania will, before many years roll around, reap a rich harvest from the bill: but if Pennsylvania will cling to her old policy which sees no other interest than her iron and coal, and prevents the passage of this bill, upon the shoulders of Pennsylvania must rest the responsibility, not upon mine."—Cong. Globe, page 990.

According to the leadership of Mr. CAMPBELL, the bill passed, by the votes of the great body of the Republicans.

Now we submit the question to every candid reader, as to the party who caused the reduction of the Tariff of '46; and who is to blame for the "hard times," if they are attributable to the modification of the Tariff laws in '57?—From the facts of the case it is very clear that the Republicans managed and voted through Congress the modification now complained of in their party platform. How shamefully it becomes them, then, to attempt to repudiate their own acts and cast the blame upon the Democrats. Not eighteen months from the date of their efforts in favor of reduced rates and a free list, they turn around, and claim to be the friends of high rates and a protected list. The Democratic Tariff of '46 had given general satisfaction and wide spread prosperity to the country for twelve years, and its "stability" would not have been broken, nor the Federal Treasury been bankrupted, and the loan of millions resorted to to keep the wheels of Government in motion, had the Black Republicans been in the minority in the 34th Congress. They then had the power to do mischief, and most effectually did they exercise it.

The Nabob Manufacturers of the East threw their gold and their influence in favor of a reduced Tariff. They succeeded by electing their man Banks for Speaker, who according to arrangement, appointed Campbell to the head of the Tariff Committee; who also by arrangement reported a bill of reduced rates and a free list; and the Republicans, as a party, carried the bill through Congress in spite of opposition. The $78,000 corrupting fund contributed by Lawrence, Stone & Co., a rich manufacturing firm in Boston, throws a little light upon the means and motives at the root of the offensive changes in the Revenue laws. The Congressional Committee of investigation developed the fact that the Republicans paid liberally to secure the passage of the law; and even went so far as to offer Greeley of the Tribune $1,000 for his assistance.—Honesdale Herald.

☞In the face of these direct facts, Mr. MCPHERSON, the Know Nothing Black Republican candidate for Congress, and his mouth-pieces, the Star and Sentinel, with the wire-pullers of the party generally, are endeavoring to cheat the people into the belief that JAMES BUCHANAN'S administration is responsible for the present Tariff policy, and that whatever depression manufacturing interests may have felt, or now feel, is solely attributable to Democratic prodigacy and want of patriotism.—A more consummate and barefaced deception was never invented. And the authors KNOW it to be so; but, to carry an election, they will stoop to anything—to any sacrifice of honor and honesty—to any trick, no matter how vile and despicable.

It is indispatable that the country never prospered until the adoption of the Democratic Tariff of '46. Money was plenty, labor every where in demand, and wages good, everything commanding good prices and finding a ready market. But in '57 this Tariff was materially altered and reduced. The bill originated in and was passed by a Republican House of Representatives, of which Republican Banks was Speaker—it was brought forward by a Republican, advocated almost exclusively by Republicans, and was voted for by them. Yet, in order to catch unsuspecting voters, these same men now come forward and knavishly attempt to saddle their own sin on the shoulders of the Democrats! They commit the wrong themselves and then charge it upon their opponents. This is an old trick, with which the public is too familiar to be deceived now. The only consistency the Opposition has shown is in nominating and supporting free trade men.

Darkness vs. Light!

It is high authority which says that "men love darkness and hate the light," and that, too, "because their deeds are evil."—Star of Friday week.

Comment.

"You and each of you, of your own free will and accord, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, your right hand resting on this HOLY BIBLE and CROSS, and your left hand raised towards Heaven, in token of your sincerity, do solemnly promise and SWEAR that you will not make known to any person or persons, any of the signs, secrets, mysteries or objects of this organization, unless it be to those whom, after due examination, or lawful information, you shall find to be members of this organization in good standing."—Part of Know Nothing Oath.

How was it, SAMUEL DURBORAW, when you subscribed to the Know Nothing oath of secrecy—did you then believe that "men love darkness and hate the light," and that, too, "because their deeds are evil"?

"You furthermore promise and declare that you will not vote nor give your influence to any man for ANY OFFICE in the gift of the people, unless he be an American-born citizen, in favor of 'Americans ruling America,' nor if he be a Roman Catholic, and that you will not, under ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, expose the name of any member of this order, nor reveal the existence of such an organization."—Part of Know Nothing Oath.

Answer again, SAMUEL BURBORAW—do "men love darkness and hate the light," "because their deeds are evil"?

More "Darkness!"

The Know Nothing-Black Republican County Committee was advertised to meet at Tate's hotel, in this place, on Tuesday last, but Friday's Star contains not a word in regard to its doings. It must have been a "dark-lantern" affair, such as that which the editor of the Star alluded to when he penned the following paragraph, printed in his issue of Sept. 23d, 1854:—

"The impression seems to be general that a Know Nothing Convention was in session in this place on Friday last, and that a ticket was agreed on. Various rumors are afloat as to the results of their deliberations. We presume, however, the truth will only be known after the October election."

"Sam" must again have bidden the public to wait for "the truth" until "after the October election." Certainly they are receiving very little through his organs just now.

Mr. Will's "Record."

The Star managers over-reach themselves in their anxiety to defeat Mr. WILL. They show just what he and his Democratic friends desire they shall show, when they class him among those members of the Legislature who voted against the agitation of the Kansas issue in that body. The National Legislature was the proper place for the adjustment of that vexed question—not that of Pennsylvania—and Mr. Will did perfectly right in voting with the great body of the Democratic members, that the designs of unprincipled agitators might be frustrated.

So, too, in reference to his vote on the sale of the State Canals. No matter what may have been the policy of the sale, the terms proposed in the bill were objectionable on several grounds, and fully justified Mr. Will in voting against accepting them. The immense profits which the purchasers of the Canals are now realizing out of them are "proofs strong as holy writ" of the correctness of his position.

If the Star can furnish additional items of a similar nature in Mr. Will's "record," let them be forthcoming, by all means. He could not ask a greater favor at the hands of the managers.

☞SAY, editors of the Star and Sentinel, did not Major MUSSELMAN, as a member of the Legislature, accept $200 of "extra pay"? And, further, SAY, did you find fault with him for so doing? Answer, or "forever hold your peace" in regard to CHARLES WILL.

☞But for the "Scotch Water Pipe" business, what would the Opposition journals do? True, the Government officer having the work in hand has thoroughly disproved their charge, by showing that the contract to furnish the "Pipes," was given to a Philadelphian. But they must have some kind of hobby—for now it is "rot, hog, or die."

☞The Opposition have Vermont, as usual.

Congressional Conference.

The Democratic Congressional Conference from the several counties composing the 17th District, met in Chambersburg on the 2d inst., and on motion, Hon. Samuel Robinson, of Fulton, was chosen President, and A. J. Greer, of Juniata, Secretary.

The list of the counties having been called over, the following persons answered to their names as Conferees:

FRANKLIN—J. W. Douglas, Joseph Johnston, Wm. D. McKinstry.

FULTON—D. Logan, Samuel Robinson, J. B. Sansom.

ADAMS—Wm. C. Stem, J. D. Newman, Wm. A. Duncan.

JUNIATA—J. A. Christy, A. G. Bonsall, A. J. Greer.

The following communication was received from the Conferees of Bedford county:

BEDFORD, Aug. 31, 1858.

To the Democratic Conference of the 17th Congressional District:

GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned, being the Conferees of the Democratic party of Bedford county, either by appointment or substitution, are unable to attend the meeting of Conferees at Chambersburg on the 2d of September. We were under the impression that the meeting would take place on the 7th of September. We desire that the three votes of Bedford county shall be recorded in favor of the re-nomination of Hon. Wilson Reilly. If our votes cannot be so recorded in our absence, we will regard it as a favor if you will publish this request as a part of the proceedings of your meeting.

Respectfully yours,
T. H. MURRAY,
J. P. REED,
O. E. SHANNON,
Conferees of Bedford county.

On motion of A. J. Greer, of Juniata, Hon. Wilson Reilly was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Sansom, of Fulton, offered the following resolutions, passed by the Democracy of Bedford at their meeting on the 30th ult., and asked their incorporation in the proceedings. Agreed to:

Resolved, That the Hon. Wilson Reilly has faithfully represented his constituency in the Congress of which he is at present a member, and that if nominated for re-election by the Democracy of this Congressional district, we will cordially support him. We will vote for him, work for him, and triumphantly elect him.

On motion of Hon. Wm. P. Scholl, the following amendment was offered to this resolution, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Conferees appointed by the late Democratic County Convention to represent this county in the Democratic Congressional Conference, which is to meet at Chambersburg on September 2d, be, and they are hereby instructed to support Hon. W. Reilly, for re-nomination.

Mr. McKinstry, of Franklin, offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the nomination of Hon. Wilson Reilly, as the Democratic candidate for election to the Thirty-Fifth Congress, this Conference has presented to the voters of the 17th Congressional District a gentleman, who, by his natural gifts, acquired attainments and spotless integrity and honesty, is eminently deserving of their suffrages. That, in the name and by the authority of our respective constituencies, we cordially and unqualifiedly endorse his votes in Congress.

Resolved, That for our respective counties and ourselves, we pledge to Mr. Reilly every honest effort, and the most untiring exertion, to secure his election.

On motion, Messrs. J. B. Sansom, Wm. C. Stem, and J. W. Douglas, were appointed a Committee to inform Mr. Reilly of his nomination. Having retired and returned with Mr. Reilly, he made a brief but eloquent speech pertinent to the occasion.

On motion, adjourned.

SAM'L. ROBINSON, Pres't.
A. J. GREER, Sec'y.

☞The course pursued by the Star and the Sentinel towards CHARLES WILL, the Democratic candidate for the Legislature, is mean, to say the least of it. They seek to injure him in public estimation by asserting that he accepted the additional pay allowed to members by a law of the Legislature—and yet it is but twelve months since they could see nothing wrong in Mr. MUSSELMAN, who had done the self-same thing.—Now, if it was not wrong in Mr. Musselman to accept the full pay, how could it have been so in Mr. Will? This is the naked question, which admits of no equivocation.

Mr. Will voted against the provision (as a test question) allowing the additional pay—the whole amounting to just what was paid the previous winter. The section passed, however, as a part of the Appropriation Bill, and under it members drew their pay, Mr. Will among them. Either the editor of the Star or Sentinel would have taken it, had it been ten times as much.

We should have preferred avoiding all allusion to Major Musselman, he not being a candidate, but the course of his own party papers forces it upon us. If it is disagreeable to him, let him lay the blame at their doors.

A Good Example.—It gives us pleasure to note that Mr. Getz, the editor of the Reading Gazette and Democrat, who at one time opposed the nomination of Hon. J. Glancy Jones for re-election to Congress, now cordially sustains the nomination, and will support his election with all his power. Mr. Getz recognises to the full extent his obligation, as a member of the Democratic party, to sustain its ticket as well as its measures, and to uphold the hands of the national administration.

☞"Camp Susquehanna," at Williamsport, last week, was a large affair, 2500 military being present. The Chambersburg company participated.

☞The Fulton Democrat pledges 300 majority for WILSON REILLY in that county.

Mr. McPherson in Bedford.

From the Bedford Gazette, of Sept. 3d.

Abolition Meeting.—The great (?) and glorious (?) Abolition party of Bedford county, held a very small and very quiet meeting in the Court House on Tuesday evening last. Mr. FR. JORDAN stated the object of the meeting and introduced, as the orator of the evening, a fellow by the name of MCPHERSON, who, it seems, imagines that he is the nominee of some party, or other, for Congress. Mr. MCPHERSON then proceeded to make a dry, disconnected, confused speech, in which, as a matter of course, the Democratic party was called all kinds of hard names. Among other things he talked about Democrats having "no brains," and charged that the Democracy are dishonest and corrupt. He admitted nevertheless, that he could not point out any particular Democratic member of Congress upon whom this charge could be fixed. We have no doubt, however, that he could have named some Abolition Congressmen, had he possessed the honesty to do it, who have been guilty of taking bribes; for instance that pink of Abolitionism, O. B. MATTESON, of New York, whose venality and corruption whilst in Congress, have been, and are to this day, the talk of the whole country. But Kansas formed the staple of the would-be Congressman's speech. On this subject he "spread" himself extensively. We doubt, however, whether any body but himself, was interested in his declamation on "Lecompton." It was so dry that even Jordan yawned. The most faithful of the faithful, became fidgetty under the re-infliction of a speech which they had heard and read so often, and which John Filler had greatly surpassed when speaking on the same subject at that great outpouring of eighty or ninety men at April Court last. Mr. MCPHERSON, finding that his Kansas humbuggery wouldn't do, turned his attention to the Tariff, but forgot to tell his hearers that LEWIS D. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, a leading Abolitionist, reported the bill in the last Congress to reduce the Tariff of 1846, and that that Congress was composed of a majority of Opposition members.—He also forgot to tell them that Thurlow Weed, the great high Priest of Black Republicanism, was hired to work for the reduction of the Tariff of 1846.—From the Tariff the speaker proceeded to the expenditures of the Government. On this point he contradicted his own statements a number of times. First he said the expenses of the Government for the past year, were a hundred millions, next he came down to eighty millions, and finally he got the appropriations for the next year mixed up with the expenses for the last. His memory also strangely failed him on this subject, or he might have given his audience some interesting information concerning the recklessness with which the Opposition Congress of two years ago, contracted debts for the Government, which debts it now becomes necessary for the National administration to discharge. After Mr. McPherson had concluded his harangue, the people present left, almost in a body, ourselves among the rest. As we were passing out of the door, we observed some little fellow, with a very red face, getting under a table to read from a paper he held in both his hands, but not being able to understand the language in which he was reading, which we presume was the African, we went home, perfectly satisfied that all will be right in Bedford county, on the second Tuesday of October.

Town & County Affairs.

☞THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE will meet at the house of H. D. Watties, in Gettysburg, on WEDNESDAY, THE 15TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER INSTANT, at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of supplying the vacancy on the ticket occasioned by the declination of Dr. Stem, and attending to such other business as may be deemed necessary. A full attendance of the members is earnestly urged.

Two Daily Trains.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that on and after this day two trains, morning and afternoon, will leave Goulden's Station daily, with passengers for Baltimore, York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, &c., instead of one as heretofore announced.

Railroad Extension.

The citizens of Waynesboro', and Hagerstown, and vicinities, appear to be determined to have a Railroad outlet from their fertile valley. It is said that they have employed an Engineer to make preliminary surveys, and locate a road from this place to Waynesboro' and Hagerstown, and make report of the cost of the work. By adopting the route of the "Pennsylvania Extension," a comparatively cheap road can be made. The most expensive twelve miles of it are nearly graded and well bridged.

The Gettysburg Railroad is now a complete success, and we should not be surprised to see it extended. It can be done with like energy and perseverance.

Fire Ins. Co. Election.

On Monday last the following gentlemen were elected Managers of the "Adams County Mutual Fire Insurance company," for the ensuing year: Geo. Swope, D. A. Buehler, Jacob King, A. Heintzelman, Rob't. McCurdy, Thos. A. Marshall, S. Fahnestock, Wm. B. McClellan, Wm. B. Wilson, M. Eichelberger, A. P. Gitt, John Wolford, H. A. Picking, J. Aughinbaugh, John Harper, R. G. McCreary, And. Polly, John Picking, J. B. Herdt.

The Board will meet to-day, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to elect officers, &c.

Commencement Week.

The exercises connected with the Theological Seminary will take place on Tuesday evening next, at 7 o'clock.—On Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock, the Junior Exhibition of the College occurs. Death of Miss Lahman.

It pains us to announce that Miss HANNAH, daughter of JOHN LAHMAN, Esq., of Franklin Grove, Illinois, who was severely burned by a camphene explosion on the 5th of July last, died on the 1st of the present month. A letter before us states that her burns were healing fast, and that she would have been able to walk through the house in a few days, when she took severe diarrhœa, which caused her death on the day stated. Her age was 18 years. The numerous friends of the family in this county will deeply sympathize with them in this melancholy bereavement.

Handsome Monument.

The visitor to Ever Green Cemetery will be gratified with the large and handsome Monument just erected by the immediate relatives of the late Hon. GEORGE SMYSER. It is sixteen and a half feet in height, of Italian marble, faultless in design, and of excellent workmanship. It is, and deserves to be, much admired. We hope to see this example imitated, at least by those who can well afford it. The entire cost of this Monument has been about $800.

—The Drs. HORNER, we understand, intend having erected, soon, a fine Monument over the remains of their father and mother.

An Honest Act.

On Monday last, Sheriff LICHTNER, of this place, lost his Pocket Book on the road leading from this place to Hunterstown. The purse contained about $250. Upon missing the purse he immediately started in search and obtained the lost treasure from two young—Messrs. ABNER BRINDEL and REUBEN R. WEIKERT, residents of Cumberland county, who had picked it up, while passing along the road. They promptly delivered it to the owner, and were liberally rewarded for their honesty, which they at first refused. Conduct like this, on the part of the young men is deserving of note.

Littlestown

Is still onward in the march of improvement. In addition to the new buildings noticed in The Compiler some months since, we learn that Mr. JOSEPH BARKER has had his old tavern house torn down, and is erecting, with all dispatch, a large brick building for the same purpose on its site. The extensive Foundry and Machine Shop of Messrs. BANGE & MILLER is in full blast, doing a good business. The Railroad has worked wonders.

Petersburg.

The town of Petersburg (Y. S.) is also improving handsomely, we are informed. Mr. JACOB A. GARDNER is having erected a large iron-front Store building, and Mr. E. HITESHUE an open-front for the same business. The new brick residence of Mr. ARNOLD GARDNER, on the north side of the town, is one of the finest in the county. The new School-house is finished.

"Camp Reed."

The Independent Blues, of this place, were encamped on Marsh creek, immediately south of the Chambersburg Turnpike, (on land of Maj. SAMUEL LOHR,) during Thursday and Friday last, and, of course, had a good time of it. We found a large number of visitors there on Thursday evening, on which occasion the Citizens' Band paid the Company a friendly visit, and discoursed excellent music. All seemed gratified with the appearance of the camp, which was named "Camp Reed," in honor, we suppose, of the Company's first Captain.

"The Museum."

We have to acknowledge this week several contributions to our "museum" of vegetable curiosities.

Mr. JOHN KEEFAUVER, of Cumberland township, brought to our office a stalk of Corn measuring 15 feet in length!—being little more than the average height of a number of rows in one of his fields. The seed, he believe, was gotten in the west.

Mr. JOHN FISHER, of this place, placed upon our table a Cucumber 17 inches long, and weighing 2 pounds and 3 ounces. It was of the "long green" variety—grown from seed procured through the Patent Office.

Mr. GEORGE BUSHMAN, of Cumberland township, places us under obligations for a fine specimen of the Balsam Apple—among the largest we have seen this season.

Mr. EMANUEL BUSHMAN, of this place, sends in a Bean Stalk measuring 16½ feet in length. Who can beat it?

Installation.

The Rev. JAMES R. KEISER was on Sabbath last, the 5th inst., installed as Pastor over St. James Lutheran Church of this place. The services of the Installation were as follows:—Invocation, reading the Scriptures, and Introductory Prayer by Prof. M. Jacobs; Ceremony of Installation by Rev. P. Anstædt; Charge to the Pastor by Rev. Dr. Schmucker; Address to the People and concluding Prayer by Rev. Dr. Krauth; Benediction by the Pastor. The services were interspersed with music, which was judiciously selected and performed in excellent taste. The day was charming, and the audience large, attentive, and appreciative. The Charge to the Pastor was comprehensive and terse, faithful and yet fraternal. The Address to the People touched upon some of the leading duties which a Congregation owe to their Pastor. These were enforced with an affectionate earnestness, and if duly regarded, cannot fail greatly to augment the happiness of both pastor and people.—Star.

Large Pumpkins.

Any one desirous of seeing "some pumpkins," can be gratified by calling at the hotel of Maj. SANDERS, in New Chester, this county. There are four of mammoth size growing in his garden, the product of a single seed. We take them to be of the variety named the "barrel pumpkin," coming up as they do to the diameter of a barrel. The Major will be found not only ready to show these vegetable curiosities, but also to have the wants of man and beast amply attended to at his excellent Inn.

Extraordinary Suicide by Voluntary Starvation.—Jacob Plant, 86 years of age, died in Manchester, Mass., on Monday last, of voluntary starvation. Mr. Plant was paying attention to a young lady of the above place some three years ago, but his proposal for marriage was rejected. The disappointment preyed upon his mind and he soon afterward attempted to blow his brains out, but only succeeded in destroying both eyes. He has consequently remained blind for three years.—During that time he once made an unsuccessful attempt to starve himself. The second time he was successful—meeting his end as above stated. He had partaken of nothing for nine days but coffee, sweetened water and morphine.

Horrible Murder near Waynesboro'.

For the first time in many years are we called upon to shock the sensibilities of our readers by chronicling the details of a horrid murder committed in our own county. On Sunday evening last two brothers named David and Daniel Funk, who reside on a farm about one mile from the town of Waynesboro', in this county, perpetrated a deliberate and cold-blooded murder on a man by the name of John Osburn, a shoemaker by trade. It appears according to the rumors which have reached this place, in relation to this affair, that Osburn, who was an old man and a cripple, resided as a tenant on Funks' farm, and was in the habit of obtaining the water used in his family from a spring near the residence of the Funks. At this spring there is a Spring House from which several articles, such as are usually found in places of the kind, had been purloined. The Funks blamed Osburn and his sons for committing the thefts and forbid him or them to visit the spring, although allowing his wife and daughters to do so. On Sunday morning, the old man visited the spring as usual. The Funks ordered him off; he refused to go until he obtained water. They then attempted to shoot him, but, the gun would not go off after being snapped at him several times. The Funks, anticipating Osburn's return to the spring, made preparations for his reception. They drew the load out of the gun and reloaded it afresh with a heavy charge of buck shot. In the evening about 4 o'clock, Osburn returned to the spring and the Funks sallied out to attack him. Dave struck him a severe blow on the head with a stone, and Dan, the younger brother, fired the contents of the gun into his side a little above the hip. Osburn died during the night from the effects of the wounds received. Some forty or fifty shot penetrated his side and hip. The blow received on his head it is also thought would have been sufficient to cause death. Osburn leaves a wife and several children. The Funks are both married men. They were arrested at Waynesboro' on Monday and brought to this place and committed to jail to await their trial at the next term of our court.—Chambersburg Spirit.

Miracles Never Cease.

THE LATEST PRODIGY OF SCIENCE.—Great truths are indestructible. When Jenner averred that vaccine inocculation was a safeguard against the small-pox, the "faculty" sneered. Forty-five years later, the world laughed at Daguerre's first announcement that he could fix a shadow and render it as imperishable as substance. Even Morse's telegraph was regarded by thousands as a myth, until the first line was put up in 1844. Now vaccination is universal, daguerreotypes are as common as woodcuts, and we talk by telegraph with almost as much facility as across a friend's table.

Such is necessarily the progress of a grand discovery or invention in an age like ours; and of this irresistible onward movement of the useful and beneficent in practical science, we have a still more striking example in the world-wide popularity of Holloway's great remedies. If we mistake not, they are scarcely older as an invention than the photograph and the electric telegraph, and yet they are familiar to half the human race. The discoveries of Daguerre and Morse have not been applied throughout the whole area of civilization; but barbarian and semi-barbarian races, upon whom the light of Christianity has not yet dawned, have experienced the benefits of these preparations.

When they were first introduced to public notice through the columns of the English press, about twenty years ago, some of the medical magnates of the day scoffed at them, as their prototypes of the days of Jenner and Harvey scoffed at vaccination and the theory of the circulation of the blood. But how is it now? The name of Holloway has been rendered illustrious by the spontaneous testimony of countless multitudes. The voice of skepticism has been hushed, and the specious arguments of professional dogmatists confounded, by the introduction of his Pills and Ointment into the medical institutions of the most enlightened nations.

There may possibly be here and there a dogged disciplinarian of the old school, who won't see what is patent to the whole world—some fossil specimen of a bygone age of medical bigotry, who closes his ears to the great fact that Holloway's vegetable remedies are displacing and superseding the mineral poisons, once considered all in all; but such instances of confirmed and hopeless "old fogyism" are fortunately few and far between. They will probably be remembered when Holloway is forgotten—and not till then.—[N. Y. Nat. Pol. Gazette.

THE COMET.—Donati's Comet was seen with the naked eye about eight o'clock, on the evening of the 29th ult., at Cambridge. It is near the northwest horizon, and appears as a star of the second or third magnitude. Thousands of females die annually for want of a remedy for the ailments to which they are incident. The only such remedy we know of is Sir James Clarke's Female Pills. They are put up in bottles, containing 50 pills, with a circular containing explicit directions, and sent post-free for $1 and 6 post stamps. They are well known to be the only sure and safe remedy for female diseases and obstructions from any cause. See adv.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—The changes of climate and, above all, the varieties of water, encountered in traversing even a small portion of the United States, are severe trials to the traveller. In order to secure the system from the evil consequences so frequently resulting from these causes, it is absolutely necessary to be provided with Holloway's justly celebrated Pills. It is beyond dispute that in all cases where the stomach and bowels are disturbed by change of air, water, or diet, (or any other cause,) they quickly and invariably restore the tone of the one and the regularity of the other. Visitors to or residents in the alluvial districts of the South and West, will find them a certain remedy for bilious affections and intermittent fevers.

Particular attention is directed to the Act of Assembly, passed the 27th day of February, 1849, entitled "An act relative to voting at elections in Adams, Dauphin, York, Lancaster, Cumberland, Bradford, Centre, Greene, and Erie," viz:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same—that it shall be lawful for the qualified voters of the counties of Adams, Lancaster, Dauphin, York, Franklin, Cumberland, Bradford, Centre, Greene, and Erie, from and after the passage of this act, to vote for all candidates for the various offices to be filled at an election on one slip or ticket:—Provided, That the office for which every candidate is voted for, shall be designated, as required by the existing laws of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 2. That any fraud committed by any person voting in the manner above prescribed, shall be punished by the existing laws of this Commonwealth.

Attention is also directed to the following section of the Act of the General Assembly of the session of 1851, entitled "An act to provide for the election of Judges of the several Courts of this Commonwealth:"

SECTION 4. That the election for Judges shall be held and conducted in the several election districts in the same manner in all respects as elections for representatives are or shall be held and conducted, and by the same Judges, Inspectors, and other officers; and the provisions of the act of the General Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved the second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, and the several supplements, and all other like laws, as far as the same shall be in force and applicable, shall be deemed and taken to apply to the election for Judges; Provided, That the aforesaid electors shall vote for judges of the Supreme Court on a separate piece of paper, and for all other judges required to be learned in the law, on another separate piece of paper.

ALSO—That in the fourth section of the Act of Assembly entitled "An Act relating to executions, and for other purposes," approved April 16th, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 14th section "shall not be construed, as to prevent any militia officer or borough officer, from serving as judge, inspector or clerk, at any general or special election in this Commonwealth."

And in and by an Act of the General Assembly of this State, passed the 2d day of July, 1839, it is directed that the Inspectors and Judges be at the places of their districts on the day of the General Election aforesaid, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, to do and perform the several duties required and enjoined on them in and by the same act.

Great Improvement

IN COOKING STOVES.—Consumption of Smoke and Gas, and Saving of Fuel.—The subscriber would respectfully inform the public that he has added to his former variety of Stoves, a new Patented Gas-burning COOKING STOVE.

It is well known that all inflammable matter requires a certain amount of air to support combustion, and if the supply is insufficient, it is impossible to produce a flame.—The heat of the fire, in ordinary cooking stoves, decomposes the fuel, and as all the fresh air is admitted under the grate, its oxygen is exhausted before it has passed through the fire-chamber. The close flues at the top of the stove, then act as an extinguisher, tending to put out the fire, instead of assisting the combustion. A large portion of the fuel, therefore, passes off in the shape of smoke, clogging up the flues of the stove so as to impede the draft and interfere with the baking,—or of invisible gas which combines with the lime and so destroys the mortar of the chimneys, loosening the bricks, and exposing the dwellings to the danger of fire.

The introduction of an additional supply of cold air, would cool the gas below the igniting temperature, but by the proper application above the fire, of air previously heated to a temperature of several hundred degrees (which is one of the prominent features of the patent), the gases are inflamed in numerous jets, and their combustion is sufficient to heat the oven, even if the draft through the fire-chamber is entirely closed.

In addition to the ordinary direct draft under the grate and through the fire-chamber, the gas-burner has an additional draft through the top plates, which is of itself sufficient to maintain combustion. The upper draft not only consumes the gases, but it helps to strengthen and preserve the centre pieces, which are most exposed to the direct action of the fire, and which are made double instead of the usual single plates. By means of this draft alone, all the operations of cooking can be carried on when the fuel is but partially ignited, and the fuel consequently burns more slowly and more economically.

A sufficient evidence of the effect of the gases in heating the oven, is found in the fact that the oven will be ready for baking, even before the fire is thoroughly kindled, and much sooner than in any other stove.

As Gas-burning Stoves are the order of the day, the Gas-burning Cooking Stove will not only be the leading stove of the present season, but it will undoubtedly supercede all others. Purchasers will, therefore, consult their own interest, by seeing and examining it before giving any orders elsewhere. The operation is so perfect, and its advantages are so easily to be seen and understood, that it readily commands, at retail, an advance of five or six dollars over the retail price of any stove of the same size.

Also, on hand a variety of PARLOR COAL STOVES—cheap.

SICKLY FEMALES—Should lose no time in trying a few doses of this regulating and renovating remedy, whatever may be their complaint, it can be taken with safety in all periodical and other disorganizations. Its effect is all but miraculous.

UNREFUTED PROOF.—The testimony of Nations is unanimously borne to the health-giving virtues of his noble remedy, and certificates in every living language bear witness to the undeniableness of their intrinsic worth.

A Card

FROM DR. JAMES M. JARRETT, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantages of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integuments. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c. &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance $6 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address,

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,
No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth st., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.

The Liver Invigorator,

PREPARED by DR. SANFORD, compounded entirely from GUMS, is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build up with unusual rapidity.

LIVER INVIGORATOR

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty.—For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than 20 years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One dose taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves CHOLIC, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst forms, while SUMMER and BOWEL complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cure attacks caused by Worms in Children; there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

A few bottles cure DROPSY, by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all FEVER of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR is a scientific medical discovery, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of LIVER complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Elastic Cement Roofing.

THE subscriber is prepared to contract and put on at the shortest notice, W. E. Child & Co's. Patent Fire and Water Proof Elastic Cement Roofing.

It is perfectly Fire and Water proof, and in point of durability is equal, if not superior, to any Metalic Roofing. It can be put on over tin, tar, iron, or shingle roofs, however flat or steep they may be.

In point of resisting the elements of fire and water, nothing has yet been discovered equal to the Elastic Cement.

Those who have used it, have testified that it is the very perfection of Roofing, and that there is no further room for improvement.—No one will now think of putting on shingles, when this Cement can be had for much less money and will outwear four shingle roofs. This Roofing is warranted as represented.

The Elastic Cement is the cheapest, and best protection from decay, for wood exposed to the weather or dampness of the ground. It is also the best paint for iron, effectually preventing rust; and when once applied perfectly excludes dampness. [illegible]

The subscriber has this Cement for sale, in quantities to suit. For further information, apply to GEORGE A. COLE, [illegible]

Specimens of the Roofing may be seen at the Prothonotary's Office, in Gettysburg.

The Poet's Corner.

WHEN I AM DEAD.

Toll not the bell of death for me,
When I am dead;
Strew not the flowery wreath o'er me,
On my cold bed.
Let friendship's sacred tear
On my fresh grave appear,
Gemming with pearls my bier—
When I am dead.
No dazzling proud array
Of pageantry display,
My fate to spread.

Let not the busy crowd be near,
When I am dead;
Fanning with unfelt sighs my bier,
Sighs quickly sped.
Deep let the impression rest
In some fond, feeling breast;
Then were my memory blest
When I am dead.
Let not the day be writ;
Love will remember it,
Untold—unsaid.

Select Miscellany.

Sold Himself.

We have heard a capital anecdote of a witty clergyman, who is said never to come off second best in a jocular encounter.

As he was one day passing down the street of a large village where he was settled, he was observed by some waggish hangers on at a public house which he was approaching. One of these fellows, knowing the reverend gentleman was a "hard case," at a joke, said that he would bet drinks for all hands that he would head Mr. A.

As Mr. A. came opposite the merry group, the proposer of the bet called to him, Mr. A. halted and drew near, whereupon the confident chap addressed him:—

"Mr. A., we have a dispute here of some importance, which we have agreed to leave to you as one competent to give a correct decision."

"Ah! what is it?"

"It is in relation to the age of the devil. Will you tell us how old he is?"

"Gentlemen," said the imperturbable minster, "how can you presume me to be acquainted with matters of that sort? You must keep your own family record!"

A Minister's Walk and Conversation.

The editor of the North Carolina Presbyterian, who is at the Virginia Springs, has heard a good story of Speaker Orr and the Dev. Dr. W., of Lexington. Not long since, the story goes, they were both at the warm springs, and met in a public room of the hotel. They had been sitting with other company, and after awhile the Dr. rose and walked across the room with the usual limp in his gait. Mr. Orr immediately recognized him, and asked him if he was not the Chaplain at the University of Virginia at such a time, naming the year. The Dr. replied that he was. "I was there," said Mr. Orr, "a student at the University, and I knew you by your limp." "Well," said the Dr., "it seems my limping made a deeper impression on you than my preaching." The joke placed Mr. Orr in an awkward predicament, and most men would have been unable to extricate themselves, but he replied with ready wit: "Ah, Dr., it is the highest compliment we can pay a minister to say he is known by his walk rather than by his conversation."

☞A man who is very rich now, but was very poor when he was a boy, when asked how he got his riches, replied: "My father taught me never to play until my work was finished, and never spend my money until I had earned it. If I had but one hour's work in a day I must do that the first thing, and in an hour—and after that, I was allowed to play, and then could play with much more pleasure than if I had the thought of an unfinished task before my mind. I early formed the habit of doing everything in time, and it soon became easy to do so. It is to this I owe my prosperity."

Paris has Repudiated "Hoops."—Ladies will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly. The reform however cannot be brought about in a day. The hoops here must be let down slowly. The fashionables in France have made other changes in dress. A writer from Paris urges our ladies to abolish long skirts in the streets, and doff so much finery. He says the French and English ladies all wear short skirts, and show their pretty ankles, with their snow white stockings. The Balmoral under skirt is much worn.

☞We may seek costly furniture for our homes, fanciful ornaments for our mantle pieces, and rich carpets for our floors, but after the absolute necessaries for a home, books and newspapers are at once the cheapest. And certainly the most useful and abiding embellishment.

☞It's the little troubles that wear the heart out. It is easier to throw a bomb-shell a mile, than a feather—even with artillery. Forty little debts of a dollar each, will cause you more trouble and dunning than one big one of a thousand.

☞A young and pretty little lady remarked the other day that a young man who didn't take a newspaper, was not deserving of the affections of an amiable lady. A sensible girl that, and if we were a young man we would set our cap for her.

A Woman's Dodge in Rotterdam.

A foreign correspodent of the St. Louis Democrat writes: I had not gone form my rambles about the city before I was brought to a stand by a discovery. On both sides of the streets, projecting from the centre of almost every window of the dwelling houses, each at an angle of 45 degrees with the window, were placed two mirrors of about a foot square, each in a verticle position, one facing up the street and the other down. I immediately set my Yankee ingenuity to work to "guess" their object, and was not long in discovering in these mirrors plain indications that here, in this great swamp of Europe, woman's curiosity is the same as among verdant hills and more genial climes.—The mistress of the house seating herself in her parlor in a particular spot before a window, with book, needle or knitting work in hand, has but to lift her eyes into the twin looking-glasses outside her window in order to catch at a glance the whole panorama of the street in both directions. There was also another queer looking-glass arrangement which, for a long time, puzzled me. The puzzle grew out of the peculiar positions and various angles at which these mirrors were placed. I was about giving it up, when, observing that their inclination was always decidedly towards the front door, I saw the whole secret as clear as light. The good lady of the house, hearing the door-bell ring, darts a look into the curious mirror, and thereby knows in a moment who stands at the door. Of course when the door servant comes in her ladyship can at once say whether she is at home or not. In all the cities of Holland nearly every dwelling house has projecting from its windows from one to ten of these ugly looking mirrors.

Indians as a Matter of Fact.

A man who had been West, and been chased by an Indian, writes:

"Much has been said by poets and romantic young ladies about the picturesque aspect and the noble form of an untamed, untamable warrior of the prairie, and far be it from me to gainsay them. An Indian is a noble spectacle—in a picture, or at a safe distance—but when this 'noble spectacle,' in company with a dozen other 'noble spectacles,' is moving his moccasins in your direction, and you have to do some tall walking in order to keep the capillary substance on the summit of your cranium, all his nobility vanishes, and you see in him only a painted, greasy miscreant, who will, if you give him a chance, lift your hair with the same Christian spirit, composed and most serene, with which he would ask another 'spectacle' for a little more of that baked dog.' I used to think like the poets; now the sight of an Indian gives me a cramp in the stomach."

Dr. Franklin's Toast.—At a dinner of a Foreign Minister, the British Minister gave:

England—The Sun, whose bright beams enlighten and fructify the remotest corners of the earth.

The French Ambassador followed with:

France—The Moon, whose mild steady and cheering rays are the delight of all nations, controlling the darkness, and making their dreariness beautiful.

Dr. Franklin then rose and, with his usual dignity and simplicity, said:

George Washington—The Joshua who commanded the Sun and Moon to stand still and they obeyed him.

☞An old lady in the country had a danny from the city to dine with her, on a certain occasion. For the dessert there was an enormous apple-pie.

"La, ma'am!" said the gentleman, "how do you manage to handle such a pie?"

"Easy enough," was the quiet reply; "we make the crust in a wheelbarrow, wheel it under an apple-tree, and then shake the fruit down into it."

☞A testy editor wonders if we are not often frightened by the ghost of murdered truth. We do not think he is in any danger of such a fright. As he was never able to see the truth itself, he will hardly be able to discern its ghost.

☞There is a class of persons who only make friends to use them. If they can get nothing out of a man, they do not want his friendship. Such people treat their friends like cigars—they hang on to them, get all the good from them, then throw them away and spit after them.

☞A young lady asked a gentleman the meaning of the word surrogate.—"It is," replied he, "a gate through which parties pass on their way to get married." "Then I suppose," replied she, "that it is a corruption of sorrow gate." "You are right, Miss," replied her informant, "as woman is an abbreviation of wo to man."

☞"Some people," said a red-nosed individual, harranguing three or four bystanders, "waste their money in charity, others squander theirs in supporting wives and families—but, as for me, I saves mine to buy spirits."

☞The tombstone of a sweet girl, blind from her birth, bears this inscription: "There is no night there." The tomb of a child of three years, has inscribed up it—"Went in the morning."

California Poetry.

When from my farm I chance to stray, to spend an hour at close of day, I ever find the place most dear, where some friend treats to lager beer.—Sacramento Age.

Ah! yes, my friend, of city life, sure such a treat cures such a strife; but better than such a dose far, are pleasures of a fine segar.—Placer Herald.

Such pleasure may suit baser minds, but with the good no pleasure finds; we think the purest joy of life, is making love to one's own wife.—Volcano Ledger.

Most wise your choice, my worthy friend, in Hymen's joys your cares to end, but we though tired of single life, can't boast of having our own wife, and so when 'neath our cares we faint, we fly to kiss some gal that ain't—yet.—Napa Reporter.

That "lager beer" will bile provoke, while "fine Havanas" end in smoke.—To court one's wife is better far than lager beer or vile cigar. Kisses, the dew of Love's young morn, break on the lips as soon as born. These all are naught to that greatest joy—the first proud glance at your first born boy!—Evening Ledger.

'Tis true a boy's a wished for blessing, but then suppose the first's a girl. A dear sweet child, with ways caressing, with pouting lips and flaxen curl, with dimple cheeks and laughing eye, to come and bid "papa" good bye! So whether boy or whether t'other, embrace the babe and then the mother!—San Francisco Globe.

Stopping a Leak.

"John," said his master to a servant who, after a stay of protracted and suspicious duration in the wine cellar, came into the room staggering as if the task of keeping his equilibrium was altogether beyond his power, "John," said he angrily, "how often have I told you not to meddle with the wine? If you transgress again, I shall immediately discharge you from my service."

"Why—hic—sir," stammered John, "that's—hic—a pretty way—hic—to repay a favor. I did it sir—hic—for the sake of doing you a service."

"Doing me a service, you blockhead!" said his master, irritated, "what do you mean by such an extraordinary statement as that? I demand an explanation."

"Why, you see, sir—hic—I went down into the cellar and somehow the bung of the wine cask came out, and—hic—while I was searching for it—hic—so that the wine might not run out, I put my mouth to it instead of the stopper."

John was advised to be careful how the stopper came out the next time.

☞Bill P. was making a journey in a stage coach, over the hilly roads in the western part of the State, and amused himself on the way by frequent resorts to the comforts of a mysterious black bottle which he had with him—Suddenly the coach came in contact with a large stone, which, without doing any other damage, deprived Billy of his equilibrium and down he rolled on the ground.

"What'n thunder yer doing?" said Billy; "how come you to tip over?"

The driver informed him that the stage had not been overturned at all; and the passengers assured Billy that he was right. Billy approached the vehicle again, and remounted slowly to his former seat outside.

"Didn't upset, d'ye say?"

"Not at all," replied the driver.

"Well—if I'd know'd that," said Billy, "I wouldn't ha' got off."

Telegraphic Time.—The difference in time between Trinity Bay and Valentia Bay is about 3 hours and 48 minutes. The answer was received in an hour and a half. Between the extreme eastern and western points of the United States, there is a difference of time of 3 hours 50 minutes.

Time to Plant Evergreens.

We find that the old, exploded doctrine that August is the best time to transplant Evergreens, is again upon the carpet, and is advocated in one of our prominent agricultural journals with earnestness.

We trust, however, that no one will be misled with any argument of this kind, whatever may be its speciousness and plausibility. Those who have tried both spring and August, will know how to proceed in future without advice from any one.

Let us simply ask, Do not your evergreens, transplanted, (in this region,) say from the 15th March to the 15th April, live and grow with equal certainty as deciduous trees? Our experience is, that it is a rare thing to see a carefully lifted and planted evergreen die, when removed in the spring. We do not remember ever to have lost one.—Last spring we set out about one hundred American arbor vitaes, and every one has grown. We also set out Austrian pines, Scotch, Norway and Silver firs, and every one has not only lived but increased in size—some of them growing one foot!

Some persons, who perhaps have never set out a tree properly in their lives, are exceedingly profuse in heaping their complaints upon the season. Our failures in transplanting trees of any kind, have been owing, in nine cases out of ten, to the abominable manner in which they were lifted in the nursery; and we believe that a large majority of the failures are to be attributed to this cause.—Germantown Telegraph. True!

Draining Prevents Injury from Drouth.

That draining "deepens the soil," "increases the effect of manures," and "lengthens the season" of working the land, we have already shown; the fact that it "prevents the injurious effects of droughts, "however, seems a paradox, remains to be accounted for.

We all know that a deep and mellow soil retains moisture much better than a shallow and hard one. "Water is held in the soil between the minute particles of earth. If these particles be pressed together compactly, there is no space left between them for water."—Compact subsoils are but little permeable to water, compared with the same when broken up, pulverized, and mellowed. The one is porous and drinks in moisture like a sponge; the other absorbs in it but small quantities, and rapidly parts with the same on the application of heat. The one takes it from the air, which passes freely thro' it, the other impervious to the air, remains unchanged. Undrained soils, as we have shown, become compact after heavy rains, by the evaporation of the water with which they are saturated; drained soils, on the contrary, become more porous from the filtration of the same amount of moisture into the drains below.

Draining prevents injury from drouth by giving a better growth to plants in the early summer. Seeds sown on any soil containing stagnant water, sends no roots below that water line, but may for a while grow well from roots near the surface. But let drouth come, the water-line sinks rapidly, the roots having no depth to seek moisture below, are parched and buried, and without rain the crop is irreparably injured.—On a drained and deepened soil the roots go down without obstruction, and are thus prepared to withstand the effects of the long continued dry weather so often experienced. That they will do so, a thousand facts in the experience of the farmer will prove to him that observes them.

If it be granted, as we think it must be, that draining deepens and mellows the soil, it follows that draining prevents drought from effecting injuriously the growth of plants. In 1854, an excessively dry season, Prof. Flint, of Massachusetts, gathered a mass of testimony in regard to its effects on the crops, and the best means of preventing injury to the same. The returns came back, as with one voice, in favor of deepening and mellowing the soil, by draining, deep-ploughing, subsoiling and frequent culture, in the case of hoed crops. "The drought affected deep plough lands very little; on those that were faithfully subsoiled, the corn leaves did not roll at all, while on those that were shallow plowed, the corn crop suffered much, and other crops were seriously affected." A case has been stated, where a crop of beans were planted, grown and ripened on a drained and subsoiled field, without a shower of fifteen minutes, duration, or supply of water from any source, save from the dews of heaven and the moisture from beneath. At the same time in fields adjacent, vegetation was parched and crisp, making no growth whatever from lack of moisture.—Country Gentleman.

A Good Receipt.

To boil a chicken, leg of lamb, or piece of veal, with salt pork:—Take about one pound of salt pork with either of these; an old chicken will boil in about three hours, a young one, in half the time. A piece of veal will boil in one to two hours; leg of lamb in about the same time. The salt pork will boil in an hour. Take the pork and what you boil with it, out of the pot, when done, and boil the greens in the water; spinach is nice and tender, it must be taken up as soon as the water boils; other greens must be boiled longer.—In boiling the meat, add some salt.

Black Republican Inconsistency.

One of the charges made against the Democracy of the Union, with reference to their Kansas policy is, that they are willing that Kansas shall come into the Union as a slave State, with a smaller number of inhabitants, than if she elects to come in as a free State.—This is a manufactured charge. It does not rest upon a single fact. The Democratic party took the case as it was presented, and settled it upon the broad grounds of constitutional rights and popular sovereignty. But what course did the Black Republicans pursue?—Did they make no distinction between a free and a slave State? Look at the action of the Black Republican members of the last Congress, in their votes upon the applications of Minnesota and Kansas for admission into the Union. What policy did the men who are now clamoring against the Democratic party pursue when called to act upon these cases? They voted to keep the free State of Minnesota out of the Union, although she had a population of two hundred thousand people, but, at the same session, voted for a bill which allowed Kansas, which they now claim had but thirty-five thousand people, to come into the Union as a slave State, if it was the desire of her people to do so. In other words, this Republican party, which vaunts of its devotion to the interests of freedom and free States, declared, by its votes in Congress, that two hundred thousand people could not make a free State in Minnesota, but thirty-five thousand might make a slave State in Kansas.—Pennsylvanian.

Connecticut Musquitoes.—Bemus, a spruce young man from this city, was riding out into the country a few days since, with his "gal," and as the sun was hot he stopped under the shade of a tree to let his horses breathe. The "sketers" were very thick and big, and Bemus, thinking to have a little fun, called out to a farmer at work in the field; "Hallo, sir; what do you feed your musquitoes on?" "We feed 'em on little city fellers and hosses." Bemus whipped up. Fact.—Hartford Press.

Libel Suit.

THADDEUS STEVENS has instituted a suit against Mr. SANDERSON, of the Lancaster Intelligencer, for libel—found- ing the Times says, on a charge made against him of gambling. The last Intelligencer says: "We simply stated that Mr. BUCHANAN was no gambler, and that he was not guilty of that vice and other gross outrages against the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth, he was not deserving the foul epithet, bestowed upon him by STEVENS, of being the 'meanest' man that has ever occupied the Presidential chair.—We also stated that the man who would deliberately and in cool blood apply such an epithet to the Chief Magistrate of the Nation, was himself entitled to the appellation, and we say so now!"

"Extravagance!"

The Star, some time ago, charged President BUCHANAN'S Administration with expending $100,000,000 in a single year. In last Friday's issue, the managers get down to $80,000,000—the necessity of approaching the truth being forced upon them by the better knowledge of their readers. Now, take from these $80,000,000, nearly $15,000,000 of Post Office revenue, and but $65,000,000 remain. From the latter take the balance estimated at Washington to be in the Treasury at the end of the fiscal year, about $15,000,000, and the aggregate properly chargeable to the Administration sinks to the neighborhood of $50,000,000. And in this are included the expenses of the Utah expedition and the increase of the army and navy. The charge of "extravagance" exhibits recklessness as well as untruth.

The Tariff of '57.

The Republicans in Ohio have renominated Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, the author of the bill to reduce the Tariff in 1857, and by whose exertions mainly the reduction was effected, yet these worthies are just now crying out for protection! This nomination fully exposes their hypocrisy.—Exchange.

☞The Star and the Sentinel do not contain a word disapproving of the renomination of Lewis D. Campbell, notwithstanding his authorship of the Tariff reduction bill of 1857. The simple reason is, he is a fellow partner in the (bankrupt) firm of "Sam and Sambo!"

"The Republicans of the twentieth district of Ohio have nominated John Hutchins, of Warren, for Congress, in the place of the Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, who declines a re-nomination."—Star.

☞The following, from the Cincinnati Enquirer, does not look as though Giddings had "declined:"

The Defeat of Giddings.—The vote on the third ballot in the Republican Convention for the Ashtabula Congressional District stood as follows:—John Hutchins 49; Joshua R. Giddings 58; R. W. Taylor 2; Jesse Baldwin 8. Hutchins' majority over all, two.—The contest was bitter in the convention. The "rugged issue" men, knowing the moral prestige that would be against them if a man so prominently identified with the Abolition cause as Giddings was beaten, did everything they could to save him, but all to no purpose. The great Abolition champion was beaten, as his colleagues, Mott, Harlan, Denny, Julian and others of his stripe, had previously been, in other districts in Ohio and Indiana. No wonder that, under such treatment, the genuine anti-slavery men feel like encouraging an independent movement, such as has been made by Gerrit Smith in New York.

☞Banks has been re-nominated for Governor of Massachusetts by the Opposition—the same BANKS who was Speaker of the House of Representatives at Washington at the time the Tariff reduction bill of 1857 passed.

The Tariff Plank.

From present indications, the opposition, called by themselves the "People's party"—or the "Republicans"—intend to add the Tariff Plank to their Fusion Platform this fall,—hoping thereby to humbug a few voters into the support of their candidates, who otherwise would vote the Democratic ticket, as heretofore. This trick of that tricky party, we presume, will not prove very profitable in this part of the Commonwealth. The leaders of that ever-changing party have exhausted their fund of deception, and any renewed attempts at their old tricks will be exposed, and the imposition made to recoil upon their guilty heads. All their old notions—called by them principles—they have abandoned, and now for want of something better, revive the Tariff question—an unlucky hit for them, when the proceedings of the Congress that reduced the rates are more fully known.

At the organization of the 34th Congress the Black Republicans outnumbered the Democrats nearly two to one—and after an unprecedented struggle of months, succeeded in electing BANKS, of Massachusetts, Speaker, over the Democrats. In forming the Committees of the House, the tariff question was kept in view. Speaker Banks, the tool and choice of the Manufacturing Princes of the East, placed CAMPBELL, of Ohio, the leader of the Republicans in Congress, at the head of the Committee of Ways and Means, because of its control of the Revenue questions, and because Mr. CAMPBELL was a low Tariff man.

That we may not be contradicted nor be disbelieved, even by those whose party prejudices would incline them to do it, we will publish in this connection a few extracts from the speeches made by Mr. CAMPBELL during the discussion and passage of the Tariff bill now complained of:

"I wished to ascertain whether this general debate is to go on pending so important a question as that of reducing the Revenue of the Country."—C. G. page 396.

"In the higher schedules you will find a reduction, taking the importations of the last year as a basis of calculation, of about $3,000,000; and if the importation of articles in the intermediate schedules are no more in the future than they were last year, you will have an aggregate reduction of about $14,000,000." * * * "The reduction of the Revenue is one great object to accomplish."—C. G. page 990.

Mr. CAMPBELL, as the leader and mouth-piece of the Republican forces, and as the employee of the Eastern Manufacturers, attempted to coax into the support of his low Tariff bill the Democrats of Kentucky and Pennsylvania, by telling them that there should be no "party politics" in the measure, and that they could afford a reduction of duty on Iron in order to have stability in the system, and be assured of a rich harvest in a few years. Read his no-party and free-trade sentiments:

"I am very glad that the gentleman from Kentucky is willing to take this feature of the bill, because Kentucky has a growing iron interest, as Ohio has; and I believe that great interest may well afford a reduction of duty in order to have that great question withdrawn from the party politics of the times, and placed on a firm and stable basis.

"Again—I believe that if this question were settled, taken, as I said, from the arena of party politics, and placed upon the basis reported by the Committee of Conference as a finality, Pennsylvania will, before many years roll around, reap a rich harvest from the bill: but if Pennsylvania will cling to her old policy which sees no other interest than her iron and coal, and prevents the passage of this bill, upon the shoulders of Pennsylvania must rest the responsibility, not upon mine."—Cong. Globe, page 990.

According to the leadership of Mr. CAMPBELL, the bill passed, by the votes of the great body of the Republicans.

Now we submit the question to every candid reader, as to the party who caused the reduction of the Tariff of '46; and who is to blame for the "hard times," if they are attributable to the modification of the Tariff laws in '57?—From the facts of the case it is very clear that the Republicans managed and voted through Congress the modification now complained of in their party platform. How shamefully it becomes them, then, to attempt to repudiate their own acts and cast the blame upon the Democrats. Not eighteen months from the date of their efforts in favor of reduced rates and a free list, they turn around, and claim to be the friends of high rates and a protected list. The Democratic Tariff of '46 had given general satisfaction and wide spread prosperity to the country for twelve years, and its "stability" would not have been broken, nor the Federal Treasury been bankrupted, and the loan of millions resorted to to keep the wheels of Government in motion, had the Black Republicans been in the minority in the 34th Congress. They then had the power to do mischief, and most effectually did they exercise it.

The Nabob Manufacturers of the East threw their gold and their influence in favor of a reduced Tariff. They succeeded by electing their man Banks for Speaker, who according to arrangement, appointed Campbell to the head of the Tariff Committee; who also by arrangement reported a bill of reduced rates and a free list; and the Republicans, as a party, carried the bill through Congress in spite of opposition. The $78,000 corrupting fund contributed by Lawrence, Stone & Co., a rich manufacturing firm in Boston, throws a little light upon the means and motives at the root of the offensive changes in the Revenue laws. The Congressional Committee of investigation developed the fact that the Republicans paid liberally to secure the passage of the law; and even went so far as to offer Greeley of the Tribune $1,000 for his assistance.—Honesdale Herald.

☞In the face of these direct facts, Mr. MCPHERSON, the Know Nothing Black Republican candidate for Congress, and his mouth-pieces, the Star and Sentinel, with the wire-pullers of the party generally, are endeavoring to cheat the people into the belief that JAMES BUCHANAN'S administration is responsible for the present Tariff policy, and that whatever depression manufacturing interests may have felt, or now feel, is solely attributable to Democratic profligacy and want of patriotism.—A more consummate and barefaced deception was never invented. And the authors KNOW it to be so; but, to carry an election, they will stoop to anything—to any sacrifice of honor and honesty—to any trick, no matter how vile and despicable.

It is indisputable that the country never prospered as it did under the Democratic Tariff of '46. Money was plenty, labor every where in demand, and wages good, everything commanding good prices and finding a ready market. But in '57 this Tariff was materially altered and reduced. The bill originated in and was passed by a Republican House of Representatives, of which Republican Banks was Speaker—it was brought forward by a Republican, advocated almost exclusively by Republicans, and was voted for by them. Yet, in order to catch unsuspecting voters, these same men now come forward and knavishly attempt to saddle their own sin on the shoulders of the Democrats! They commit the wrong themselves and then charge it upon their opponents. This is an old trick, with which the public is too familiar to be deceived now. The only consistency the Opposition has shown is in nominating and supporting free trade men.

Darkness vs. Light!

It is high authority which says that "men love darkness and hate the light," and that, too, "because their deeds are evil"—Star of Friday week.

Comment.

"You and each of you, of your own free will and accord, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, your right hand resting on this HOLY BIBLE and CROSS, and your left hand raised towards Heaven, in token of your sincerity, do solemnly promise and SWEAR that you will not make known to any person or persons, any of the signs, secrets, mysteries or objects of this organization, unless it be to those whom, after due examination, or lawful information, you shall find to be members of this organization in good standing."—Part of Know Nothing Oath.

How was it, SAMUEL DURBORAW, when you subscribed to the Know Nothing oath of secrecy—did you then believe that "men love darkness and hate the light," and that, too, "because their deeds are evil"?

"You furthermore promise and declare that you will not vote nor give your influence to any man for ANY OFFICE in the gift of the people, unless he be an American-born citizen, in favor of 'Americans ruling America,' nor if he be a Roman Catholic, and that you will not, under ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, expose the name of any member of this order, nor reveal the existence of such an organization."—Part of Know Nothing Oath.

Answer again, SAMUEL BURBORAW—do "men love darkness and hate the light," "because their deeds are evil"?

More "Darkness!"

The Know Nothing Black Republican County Committee was advertised to meet at Tate's hotel, in this place, on Tuesday last, but Friday's Star contains not a word in regard to its doings. It must have been a "dark-lantern" affair, such as that which the editor of the Star alluded to when he penned the following paragraph, printed in his issue of Sept. 25d, 1854:—

"The impression seems to be general that a Know Nothing Convention was in session in this place on Friday last, and that a ticket was agreed on. Various rumors are afloat as to the results of their deliberations. We presume, however, the truth will only be known after the October election."

"Sam" must again have bidden the public to wait for "the truth" until "after the October election." Certainly they are receiving very little through his organs just now.

Mr. Will's "Record."

The Star managers over-reach themselves in their anxiety to defeat Mr. WILL. They show just what he and his Democratic friends desire they shall show, when they class him among those members of the Legislature who voted against the agitation of the Kansas issue in that body. The National Legislature was the proper place for the adjustment of that vexed question—not that of Pennsylvania—and Mr. Will did perfectly right in voting with the great body of the Democratic members, that the designs of unprincipled agitators might be frustrated.

So, too, in reference to his vote on the sale of the State Canals. No matter what may have been the policy of the sale, the terms proposed in the bill were objectionable on several grounds, and fully justified Mr. Will in voting against accepting them. The immense profits which the purchasers of the Canals are now realizing out of them are "proofs strong as holy writ" of the correctness of his position.

If the Star can furnish additional items of a similar nature in Mr. Will's "record," let them be forthcoming, by all means. He could not ask a greater favor at the hands of the managers.

☞SAY, editors of the Star and Sentinel, did not Major MUSSELMAN, as a member of the Legislature, accept $200 of "extra pay"? And, further, SAY, did you find fault with him for so doing? Answer, or "forever hold your peace" in regard to CHARLES WILL.

☞But for the "Scotch Water Pipe" business, what would the Opposition journals do? True, the Government officer having the work in hand has thoroughly disproved their charge, by showing that the contract to furnish the "Pipes," was given to a Philadelphian. But they must have some kind of hobby—for now it is "root, hog, or die."

☞The Opposition have Vermont, as usual.

To the Democratic Conference of the 17th Congressional District:

GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned, being the Conferees of the Democratic party of Bedford county, either by appointment or substitution, are unable to attend the meeting of Conferees at Chambersburg on the 2d of September. We were under the impression that the meeting would take place on the 7th of September. We desire that the three votes of Bedford county shall be recorded in favor of the re-nomination of Hon. Wilson Reilly. If our votes cannot be so recorded in our absence, we will regard it as a favor if you will publish this request as a part of the proceedings of your meeting.

Respectfully yours,
T. H. MURRAY,
J. P. REED,
O. E. SHANNON,
Conferees of Bedford county.

On motion of A. J. Greer, of Juniata, Hon. Wilson Reilly was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Sansom, of Fulton, offered the following resolutions passed by the Democracy of Bedford at their meeting on the 30th ult., and asked their incorporation in the proceedings. Agreed to:

Resolved, That the Hon. Wilson Reilly has faithfully represented his constituency in the Congress of which he is at present a member, and that if nominated for re-election by the Democracy of this Congressional district, we will cordially support him. We will vote for him, work for him, and triumphantly elect him.

On motion of Hon. Wm. P. Schell, the following amendment was offered to this resolution, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Conferees appointed by the late Democratic County Convention to represent this county in the Democratic Congressional Conference, which is to meet at Chambersburg on September 2d, be, and they are hereby instructed to support Hon. W. Reilly, for re-nomination.

Mr. McKinstry, of Franklin, offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the nomination of Hon. Wilson Reilly, as the Democratic candidate for election to the Thirty-Fifth Congress, this Conference has presented to the voters of the 17th Congressional District a gentleman, who, by his natural gifts, acquired attainments and spotless integrity and honesty, is eminently deserving of their suffrages. That, in the name and by the authority of our respective constituencies, we cordially and unqualifiedly endorse his votes in Congress.

Resolved, That for our respective counties and ourselves, we pledge to Mr. Reilly every honest effort, and the most untiring exertion, to secure his election.

On motion, Messrs. J. B. Sansom, Wm. C. Stem, and J. W. Douglas, were appointed a Committee to inform Mr. Reilly of his nomination. Having retired and returned with Mr. Reilly, he made a brief but eloquent speech pertinent to the occasion.

On motion, adjourned.

☞The course pursued by the Star and the Sentinel towards CHARLES WILL, the Democratic candidate for the Legislature, is mean, to say the least of it. They seek to injure him in public estimation by asserting that he accepted the additional pay allowed to members by a law of the Legislature—and yet it is but twelve months since they could see nothing wrong in Mr. MUSSELMAN, who had done the self-same thing.—Now, if it was not wrong in Mr. Musselman to accept the full pay, how could it have been so in Mr. Will? This is the naked question, which admits of no equivocation.

Mr. Will voted against the provision (as a test question) allowing the additional pay—the whole amounting to just what was paid the previous winter. The section passed, however, as a part of the Appropriation Bill, and under it members drew their pay, Mr. Will among them. Either the editor of the Star or Sentinel would have taken it, had it been ten times as much.

We should have preferred avoiding all allusion to Major Musselman, he not being a candidate, but the course of his own party papers forces it upon us. If it is disagreeable to him, let him lay the blame at their doors.

A Good Example.—It gives us pleasure to note that Mr. Getz, the editor of the Reading Gazette and Democrat, who at one time opposed the nomination of Hon. J. Glancy Jones for re-election to Congres, now cordially sustains the nomination, and will support his election with all his power. Mr. Getz recognises to the full extent his obligation, as a member of the Democratic party, to sustain its men as well as its measures, and to uphold the hands of the national administration.

☞"Camp Susquehanna," at Williamsport, last week, was a large affair, 2500 military being present. The Chambersburg company participated.

☞The Fulton Democrat pledges 300 majority for WILSON REILLY in that county.

Mr. McPherson in Bedford.

From the Bedford Gazette, of Sept. 3d.

Abolition Meeting.—The great (?) and glorious (?) Abolition party of Bedford county, held a very small and very quiet meeting in the Court House on Tuesday evening last. Mr. FR. JORDAN stated the object of the meeting and introduced, as the orator of the evening, a fellow by the name of MCPHERSON, who, it seems, imagines that he is the nominee of some party, or other, for Congress. Mr. MCPHERSON then proceeded to make a dry, disconnected, confused speech, in which, as a matter of course, the Democratic party was called all kinds of hard names. Among other things he talked about Democrats having "no brains," and charged that the Democracy are dishonest and corrupt. He admitted nevertheless, that he could not point out any particular Democratic member of Congress upon whom this charge could be fixed. We have no doubt, however, that he could have named some Abolition Congressmen, had he possessed the honesty to do it, who have been guilty of taking bribes; for instance that pink of Abolitionism, O. B. MATTESON, of New York, whose venality and corruption whilst in Congress, have been, and are to this day, the talk of the whole country. But Kansas formed the staple of the would-be Congressman's speech. On this subject he "spread" himself extensively. We doubt, however, whether any body but himself, was interested in his declamation on "Lecompton." It was so dry that even Jordan yawned. The most faithful of the faithful, became fidgetty under the re-infliction of a speech which they had heard and read so often, and which John Filler had greatly surpassed when speaking on the same subject at that great outpouring of eighty or ninety men at April Court last. Mr. MCPHERSON, finding that his Kansas humbuggery wouldn't do, turned his attention to the Tariff, but forgot to tell his hearers that LEWIS D. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, a leading Abolitionist, reported the bill in the last Congress to reduce the Tariff of 1846, and that that Congress was composed of a majority of Opposition members.—He also forgot to tell them that Thurlow Weed, the great high Priest of Black Republicanism, was hired to work for the reduction of the Tariff of 1846.—From the Tariff the speaker proceeded to the expenditures of the Government. On this point he contradicted his own statements a number of times. First he said the expenses of the Government for the past year, were a hundred millions, next he came down to eighty millions, and finally he got the appropriations for the next year mixed up with the expenses for the last. His memory also strangely failed him on this subject, or he might have given his audience some interesting information concerning the recklessness with which the Opposition Congress of two years ago, contracted debts for the Government, which debts it now becomes necessary for the National administration to discharge. After Mr. McPherson had concluded his harangue, the people present left, almost in a body, ourselves among the rest. As we were passing out of the door, we observed some little fellow, with a very red face, getting under a table to read from a paper he held in both his hands, but not being able to understand the language in which he was reading, which we presume was the African, we went home, perfectly satisfied that all will be right in Bedford county, on the second Tuesday of October.

Town & County Affairs.

☞THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE will meet at the house of H. D. Watties, in Gettysburg, on WEDNESDAY, THE 15TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER INSTANT, at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of supplying the vacancy on the ticket occasioned by the declination of Dr. Stem, and attending to such other business as may be deemed necessary. A full attendance of the members is earnestly urged.

H. J. STAHLE, Chairman.

Sept. 6, 1858.

☞The Committee is composed as follows:—Jacob Hall, John Raffensperger, George Spangler, Dr. H. Lilly, W. Ross White, W. D. Gobrecht, Dr. S. G. Kinser, Samuel Wolf, John Bennett, Peter Miller, George King, W. T. Williams, Edward McIlvine, William Bender, Jesse D. Newman, Nicholas Heltzel, Joseph S. Gitt, Henry A. Picking, Josiah Benner, Geo. F. Eckenrode, Edward Shorb, Nicholas Cordori, Sr., and the Chairman.

☞THE COMPILER will be furnished to campaign subscribers, from this time until after the October Election, for TWENTY-FIVE CENTS—to be paid in advance. SPREAD THE TRUTH!

Two Daily Trains.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that on and after this day two trains, morning and afternoon, will leave Goulden's Station daily, with passengers for Baltimore, York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, &c., instead of one as heretofore announced.

Railroad Excursion.

The citizens of Waynesboro', and Hagerstown, and vicinities, appear to be determined to have a Railroad outlet from their fertile valley. It is said that they have employed an Engineer to make preliminary surveys, and locate a road from this place to Waynesboro' and Hagerstown, and make report of the cost of the work. By adopting the route of the "Pennsylvania Extension," a comparatively cheap road can be made. The most expensive twelve miles of it are nearly graded and well bridged.

The Gettysburg Railroad is now a complete success, and we should not be surprised to see it extended. It can be done with like energy and perseverance.

Fire Ins. Co. Election.

On Monday last the following gentlemen were elected Managers of the "Adams County Mutual Fire Insurance company," for the ensuing year: Geo. Swope, D. A. Buehler, Jacob King, A. Heintzelman, Rob't. McCurdy, Thos. A. Marshall, S. Fahnestock, Wm. B. McClellan, Wm. B. Wilson, M. Eichelberger, A. F. Gitt, John Wolford, H. A. Picking, J. Aughinbaugh, John Horner, R. G. McCreary, And. Polly, John Picking, J. R. Hersh.

The Board will meet to-day, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to elect officers, &c.

Commencement Week.

The exercises connected with the Theological Seminary will take place on Tuesday evening next, at 7 o'clock.—On Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock, the Junior Exhibition of the College occurs. On Wednesday afternoon, at 2½ o'clock, the Biennial Address before the Philomathæan Society will be delivered, by MORTON MCMICHAEL, Esq., of Philadelphia. On Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock, the Annual Discourse before the Alumni of the College will be pronounced, by Rev. Dr. STORK, of Philadelphia. On Thursday morning, the Commencement will come off, the Seniors beginning at 9 o'clock.

Death of Miss Lahman.

It pains us to announce that Miss HANNAH, daughter of JOHN LAHMAN, Esq., of Franklin Grove, Illinois, who was severely burned by a camphene explosion on the 5th of July last, died on the 1st of the present month. A letter before us states that her burns were healing fast, and that she would have been able to walk through the house in a few days, when she took severe diarrhœa, which caused her death on the day stated. Her age was 18 years. The numerous friends of the family in this county will deeply sympathize with them in this melancholy bereavement.

Handsome Monument.

The visitor to Ever Green Cemetery will be gratified with the large and handsome Monument just erected by the immediate relatives of the late Hon. GEORGE SMYSER. It is sixteen and a half feet in height, of Italian marble, faultless in design, and of excellent workmanship. It is, and deserves to be, much admired. We hope to see this example imitated, at least by those who can well afford it. The entire cost of this Monument has been about $800.

—The Drs. HORNER, we understand, intend having erected, soon, a fine Monument over the remains of their father and mother.

An Honest Act.

On Monday last, Sheriff LIGHTNER, of this place, lost his Pocket Book on the road leading from this place to Hunterstown. The purse contained about $250. Upon missing the purse he immediately started in search and obtained the lost treasure from two young—Messrs. ABNER BRINDEL and REUBEN R. WEIKERT, residents of Cumberland county, who had picked it up, while passing along the road. They promptly delivered it to the owner, and were liberally rewarded for their honesty, which they at first refused. Conduct like this, on the part of the young men is deserving of note.

Littlestown

Is still onward in the march of improvement. In addition to the new buildings noticed in The Compiler some months since, we learn that Mr. JOSEPH BARKER has had his old tavern house torn down, and is erecting, with all dispatch, a large brick building for the same purpose on its site. The extensive Foundry and Machine Shop of Messrs. BANGE & MILLER is in full blast, doing a good business. The Railroad has worked wonders.

Petersburg.

The town of Petersburg (Y. S.) is also improving handsomely, we are informed. Mr. JACOB A. GARDNER is having erected a large iron-front Store building, and Mr. E. HITESHUE an open-front for the same business. The new brick residence of Mr. ARNOLD GARDNER, on the north side of the town, is one of the finest in the county. The new School-house is finished.

"Camp Reed."

The Independent Blues, of this place, were encamped on Marsh creek, immediately south of the Chambersburg Turnpike, (on land of Maj. SAMUEL LOHR,) during Thursday and Friday last, and, of course, had a good time of it. We found a large number of visitors there on Thursday evening, on which occasion the Citizens' Band paid the Company a friendly visit, and discoursed excellent music. All seemed gratified with the appearance of the camp, which was named "Camp Reed," in honor, we suppose, of the Company's first Captain.

"The Museum."

We have to acknowledge this week several contributions to our "museum" of vegetable curiosities.

Mr. JOHN KEEPADVER, of Cumberland township, brought to our office a stalk of Corn measuring 15 feet in length!—being little more than the average height of a number of rows in one of his fields. The seed, he believe, was gotten in the west.

Mr. JOHN FISHER, of this place, placed upon our table a Cucumber 17 inches long, and weighing 2 pounds and 3 ounces. It was of the "long green" variety—grown from seed procured through the Patent Office.

Mr. GEORGE BUSHMAN, of Cumberland township, places us under obligations for a fine specimen of the Balsam Apple—among the largest we have seen this season.

Mr. EMANUEL BUSHMAN, of this place, sends in a Bean Stalk measuring 16½ feet in length. Who can beat it?

Installation.

The Rev. JAMES R. KEISER was on Sabbath last, the 5th inst., installed as Pastor over St. James Lutheran Church of this place. The services of the Installation were as follows:—Invocation, reading the Scriptures, and Introductory Prayer by Prof. M. Jacobs; Ceremony of Installation by Rev. P. Anstadt; Charge to the Pastor by Rev. Dr. Schmucker; Address to the People and concluding Prayer by Rev. Dr. Krauth; Benediction by the Pastor. The services were interspersed with music, which was judiciously selected and performed in excellent taste. The day was charming, and the audience large, attentive, and appreciative. The Charge to the Pastor was comprehensive and terse, faithful and yet fraternal. The Address to the People touched upon some of the leading duties which a Congregation owe to their Pastor. These were enforced with an affectionate earnestness, and if duly regarded, cannot fail greatly to augment the happiness of both pastor and people.—Star.

Large Pumpkins.

Any one desirous of seeing "some pumpkins," can be gratified by calling at the hotel of Maj. SANDERS, in New Chester, this county. There are four of mammoth size growing in his garden, the product of a single seed. We take them to be of the variety named the "barrel pumpkin," coming up as they do to the diameter of a barrel. The Major will be found not only ready to show these vegetable curiosities, but also to have the wants of man and beast amply attended to at his excellent Inn.

Extraordinary Suicide by Voluntary Starvation.—Jacob Plant, 36 years of age, died in Manchester, Mass., on Monday last, of voluntary starvation. Mr. Plant was paying attention to a young lady of the above place some three years ago, but his proposal for marriage was rejected. The disappointment preyed upon his mind and he soon afterward attempted to blow his brains out, but only succeeded in destroying both eyes. He has consequently remained blind for three years.—During that time he once made an unsuccessful attempt to starve himself. The second time he was successful—meeting his end as above stated. He had partaken of nothing for NINE WEEKS but coffee, sweetened water and morphine.

Horrible Murder near Waynesboro'.

For the first time in many years are we called upon to shock the sensibilities of our readers by chronicling the details of a horrid murder committed in our own county. On Sunday evening last two brothers named David and Daniel Funk, who reside on a farm about one mile from the town of Waynesboro', in this county, perpetrated a deliberate and cold-blooded murder on a man by the name of John Osburn, a shoemaker by trade. It appears according to the rumors which have reached this place, in relation to this affair, that Osburn, who was an old man and a cripple, resided as a tenant on Funks' farm, and was in the habit of obtaining the water used in his family from a spring near the residence of the Funks. At this spring there is a Spring House from which several articles, such as are usually found in places of the kind, had been purloined. The Funks blamed Osburn and his sons for committing the thefts and forbid him or them to visit the spring, although allowing his wife and daughters to do so. On Sunday morning, the old man visited the spring as usual. The Funks ordered him off; he refused to go until he obtained water. They then attempted to shoot him, but, the gun would not go off after being snapped at him several times. The Funks, anticipating Osburn's return to the spring, made preparations for his reception. They drew the load out of the gun and reloaded it afresh with a heavy charge of buck-shot. In the evening about 4 o'clock, Osburn returned to the spring and the Funks sallied out to attack him. Dave struck him a severe blow on the head with a stone, and Dan, the younger brother, fired the contents of the gun into his side a little above the hip. Osburn died during the night from the effects of the wounds received. Some forty or fifty shot penetrated his side and hip. The blow received on his head it is also thought would have been sufficient to cause death. Osburn leaves a wife and several children. The Funks are both married men. They were arrested at Waynesboro' on Monday and brought to this place and committed to jail to await their trial at the next term of our court.—Chambersburg Spirit.

Miracles Never Cease.

The Latest Prodigy of Science.—Great truths are indestructible. When Jenner averred that vaccine inoculation was a safeguard against the small-pox, the "faculty" sneered. Forty-five years later, the world laughed at Daguerre's first announcement that he could fix a shadow and render it as imperishable as substance. Even Morse's telegraph was regarded by thousands as a myth, until the first line was put up in 1844. Now vaccination is universal, daguerreotypes are as common as woodcuts, and we talk by telegraph with almost as much facility as across a friend's table.

Such is necessarily the progress of a grand discovery or invention in an age like ours; and of this irresistible onward movement of the useful and beneficent in practical science, we have a still more striking example in the worldwide popularity of Holloway's great remedies. If we mistake not, they are scarcely older as an invention than the photograph and the electric telegraph, and yet they are familiar to half the human race. The discoveries of Daguerre and Morse have not been applied throughout the whole area of civilization; but barbarian and semi-barbarian races, upon whom the light of Christianity has not yet dawned, have experienced the benefits of these preparations.

When they were first introduced to public notice through the columns of the English press, about twenty years ago, some of the medical magnates of the day scoffed at them, as their prototypes of the days of Jenner and Harvey scoffed at vaccination and the theory of the circulation of the blood. But how is it now? The name of Holloway has been rendered illustrious by the spontaneous testimony of countless multitudes. The voice of skepticism has been hushed, and the specious arguments of professional dogmatists confounded, by the introduction of his Pills and Ointment into the medical institutions of the most enlightened nations.

There may possibly be here and there a dogged disciplinarian of the old school, who won't see what is patent to the whole world—some fossil specimen of a bygone age of medical bigotry, who closes his ears to the great fact that Holloway's vegetable remedies are displacing and superseding the mineral poisons, once considered all in all; but such instances of confirmed and hopeless "old fogyism" are fortunately few and far between. They will probably be remembered when Holloway is forgotten—and not till then.—[N. Y. Nat. Pol. Gazette.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—The changes of climate and, above all, the varieties of water, encountered in traversing even a small portion of the United States, are severe trials to the traveller. In order to secure the system from the evil consequences so frequently resulting from these causes, it is absolutely necessary to be provided with Holloway's justly celebrated Pills. It is beyond dispute that in all cases where the stomach and bowels are disturbed by change of air, water, or diet, (or any other cause,) they quickly and invariably restore the tone of the one and the regularity of the other. Visitors to or residents in the alluvial districts of the South and West, will find them a certain remedy for billious affections and intermittent fevers.

Section 2. That any fraud committed by any person voting in the manner above prescribed, shall be punished by the existing laws of this Commonwealth.

Attention is also directed to the following section of the Act of the General Assembly of the session of 1851, entitled "An act to provide for the election of Judges of the several Courts of this Commonwealth:"

And in and by an Act of the General Assembly of this State, passed the 2d day of July, 1839, it is directed that the Inspectors and Judges be at the places of their districts on the day of the General Election aforesaid, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, to do and perform the several duties required and enjoined on them in and by the same act.

Great Improvement

IN COOKING STOVES.—Consumption of Smoke and Gas, and Saving of Fuel.—The subscriber would respectfully inform the public that he has added to his former variety of Stoves, a new Patented Gas-burning COOKING STOVE.

It is well known that all inflammable matter requires a certain amount of air to support combustion, and if the supply is insufficient, it is impossible to produce a flame.—The heat of the fire, in ordinary cooking stoves, decomposes the fuel, and as all the fresh air is admitted under the grate, its oxygen is exhausted before it has passed through the fire-chamber. The close flues at the top of the stove, then act as an extinguisher, tending to put out the fire, instead of assisting the combustion. A large portion of the fuel, therefore, passes off in the shape of smoke, clogging up the flues of the stove so as to impede the draft and interfere with the baking,—or of invisible gas which combines with the lime and so destroys the mortar of the chimneys, loosening the bricks, and exposing the dwellings to the danger of fire.

The introduction of an additional supply of cold air, would cool the gas below the igniting temperature, but by the proper application above the fire, of air previously heated to a temperature of several hundred degrees (which is one of the prominent features of the patent), the gases are inflamed in numerous jets, and their combustion is sufficient to heat the oven, even if the draft through the fire-chamber is entirely closed.

In addition to the ordinary direct draft under the grate and through the fire-chamber, the gas-burner has an additional draft through the top plates, which is of itself sufficient to maintain combustion. The upper draft not only consumes the gases, but it helps to strengthen and preserve the centre pieces, which are most exposed to the direct action of the fire, and which are made double instead of the usual single plates. By means of this draft alone, all the operations of cooking can be carried on when the fuel is but partially ignited, and the fuel consequently burns more slowly and more economically.

A sufficient evidence of the effect of the gases in heating the oven, is found in the fact that the oven will be ready for baking, even before the fire is thoroughly kindled, and much sooner than in any other stove.

As Gas-burning Stoves are the order of the day, the Gas-burning Cooking Stove will not only be the leading stove of the present season, but it will undoubtedly supercede all others. Purchasers will, therefore, consult their own interest, by seeing and examining it before giving any orders elsewhere. The operation is so perfect, and its advantages are so easily to be seen and understood, that it readily commands, at retail, an advance of five or six dollars over the retail price of any stove of the same size.

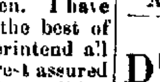

Also, on hand a variety of Parlor Coal Stoves—cheap.

The Great Ambassador of Health to all Mankind.

Holloway's Pills.

A BOON TO THE SICK!—The want of a sterling medicinal to meet the ills and necessities of the suffering portion of humanity, and one entirely free from mineral and other deleterious particles, was severely felt till this all powerful medicine was ushered into the world; Holloway's invaluable Pills have become the household remedy of all nations. Their attribute is to prevent, as well as to cure; they attack the radix or root of the complaint, and thus by removing the hidden cause of disease reinvigorate and restore the drooping energies of the system, assisting nature in her task of vital and functionary reformation.

DYSPEPSIA.—The great scourge of this continent yields quickly to a course of these antiseptic Pills, and the digestive organs are restored to their proper tone; no matter in what hideous shape this hydra of disease exhibits itself, this searching and unerring remedy disperses it from the patient's system.

GENERAL DEBILITY AND WEAKNESS.—From whatever cause, lowness of spirits, and all other signs of a diseased liver, and other disorganizations of the system vanish under the eradicating influence of this all powerful antiseptic and detergent remedy.

BILIOUS DISORDERS.—The proper quantum and right condition of the bile is of momentous importance to the health of the human frame, this anti-bilious medicine expels the hidden seeds of the complaint, and renders all the fluids and secretions pure and fluent, cleansing and resuscitating the vital functions of the body.

SICKLY FEMALES.—Should lose no time in trying a few doses of this regulating and renovating remedy, whatever may be their complaint, it can be taken with safety in all periodical and other disorganizations. Its effect is all but miraculous.

UNREFUTED PROOF.—The testimony of Nations is unanimously borne to the health-giving virtues of his noble remedy, and certificates in every living language bear witness to the undeniableness of their intrinsic worth.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Asthma,	Dropsy,	Inward Weakness,
Bowel Complaints,	Debility,	Liver Complaints,
Coughs,	Fever and Ague,	Lowness of Spirits,
Colds,	Female Complaints,	Piles,
Chest Diseases,	Headaches,	Stone and Gravel,
Costiveness,	Indigestion,	Secondary Symptoms
Dyspepsia,	Influenza,	Venereal Affections,
Diarrhoea,	Inflammation,	Worms of all kinds.

☞Caution!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactories of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States and the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 63 cents, and $1 each. A. D. Buehler, Agent Gettysburg.

☞There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

A Card

FROM DR. JAMES M. JARRETT, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantages of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integuments. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment: and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medicated Inhalers, &c. &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance $6 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address,

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,
No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth st., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.

The Liver Invigorator,

PREPARED by Dr. SANFORD, compounded entirely from GUMS, is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty.—For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than 20 years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

(SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR)

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

☞One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One dose taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves CHOLIC, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

☞Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

☞One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures CHRONIC DIARRHOEA in its worst forms, while SUMMER and BOWEL complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cure attacks caused by Worms in Children; there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

☞A few bottles cure DROPSY, by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER and AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all FEVER of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR is a scientific medical discovery, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of LIVER complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

Elastic Cement Roofing.

THE subscriber is prepared to contract and put on at the shortest notice, W. E. Child & Co's. Patent Fire and Water Proof Elastic Cement Roofing.

It is perfectly Fire and Water proof, and in point of durability is equal if not superior, to any Metalic Roofing. It can be put on over tin, tar, iron, or shingle roofs, however flat or steep they may be.

In point of resisting the elements of fire and water, nothing has yet been discovered equal to the Elastic Cement.

Those who have used it, have testified that it is the very perfection of Roofing, and that there is no further room for improvement.—No one will now think of putting on shingles, when this Cement can be had for much less money and will outwear four shingle roofs. This Roofing is warranted as represented.

The Elastic Cement is the cheapest, and best protection from decay for wood exposed to the weather or dampness of the ground. It is also the best paint for iron, effectually preventing rust; and wherever applied perfectly excludes dampness.

The subscriber has this Cement for sale, in quantities to suit. For further information, apply to GEORGE A. COLE,
Frederick City, Md.

☞Specimens of the Roofing may be seen at the Prothonotary's Office, in Gettysburg.
